WILSON TELLS GERMANS THEIR WANTS WILL BE RELIEVED

A. H. FREDERICK FREED; WILL NOT LIVE IN ST. LOUIS

Says He Will Go to Milwaukee, Join His Family and Try to Start a New Life.

SAYS HE DESERVED ALL THAT HE GOT Had Served Three and One-Half Years of a Ten-Year Term—Forged Deeds of Trust.

By a Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, Nov. 13.—August H. Frederick, St. Louis real estate dealer, and president-elect of the first St. Louis Board of Aldermen at the time of his exposure and downfall in 1915, was released at noon today under a parole granted by Gov. Gardner, after having served three and a half years of his 10-year sentence for forgery. Under the two-thirds rule, he would have had about three years more to serve, in the event of continued good behavior.

The parole, which has been opposed by the St. Louis Real Estate Exchange, was granted on the certificate of three physicians to the effect that he was suffering from valvular heart disease and thyroidism, a diseased condition of the glands of the throat. He is said to have suffered severely from insomnia.

Frederick took an afternoon train for St. Louis. Accompanied by his wife, he will proceed at once to Milwaukee, where he is to make his home with his son-in-law, H. P. Hunter, to whom he was paroled. Under the terms of the parole, if he should regain his health, or should commit further criminal acts, he is to be returned to prison. He is required to make reports at stated intervals.

The medical examination, on which the Governor's action was based, was made by Drs. Simon McNerny, W. A. Clark and Cortez Enloe, the first named being the penitentiary physician.

In cases where examining physicians state that a patient's life is endangered by remaining in prison, a parole is sometimes issued without the customary hearing of objections by the Pardon and Parole Board. This speedy course of procedure was followed in Frederick's case.

"I have suffered very much," Frederick said to a Post-Dispatch reporter, "but I guess I deserved it. I am now looking only to the future and will do all in my power to make the best of whatever time I am allotted me. I do not think I'll spend a day in St. Louis. If I can make connections I will go to Milwaukee tonight, where I will join my family."

When he laid aside his prison garb he donned the prison-furnished suit of dark blue material and a silk four-in-hand tie. He was smoothly shaved and his shoes were shined.

Frederick was Leader in Church Work; 60 Years Old.

Frederick is 60 years old. He was elected City Assessor of St. Louis, on the Republican ticket, headed by Henry Ziegenhein for Mayor, in 1897, and served four years. At that time, he was prominent in Y. M. C. A. work, and was active in the Lafayette Park Presbyterian Church. Later he removed to the West End, and became a member of the Second Presbyterian Church, in which he was an elder at the time of his downfall.

In the spring of 1915, Frederick obtained, in the Republican city primary, the party nomination for president of the Board of Aldermen, which had been created by the charter adopted in 1914.

During the campaign preceding the April election, rumors were circulated that Frederick had been guilty of financial irregularities. These reports could not be verified, and did not reach the general public in time to affect the result of the election, in which Frederick was elected by a large majority.

A few days after the election information came to the prosecuting authorities concerning forgeries perpetrated by Frederick on the Night and Day Bank, which had been discovered through an investigation of similar frauds perpetrated on the Mechanics-American National Bank in 1916.

Further investigation showed that Frederick had sold worthless deeds of trust, which had previously been released, to confiding customers.

It also developed that the officials

Armistice Brings Food Hoards to Light in Germany

(Copyright.)

PARIS, Nov. 12.—The condition of great excitement and nervousness under which the German people at present are living is revealed in information from a high diplomatic source, which is that German food profiteers who for nearly four years had been hoarding necessities are now flooding the markets with hidden goods.

In consequence, prices of food commodities in Germany have fallen nearly 50 per cent, while German housewives crowd the market places buying all they can lay hands on.

Germany can now boast more butter and more grease than at any period of the war, while military authorities are powerless to requisition hidden stores.

WASHINGTON AVENUE CUT-OFF OPENED FOR TRAFFIC TODAY

It Cost $214,000 and Eliminates the Jogg Kest of Grand Avenue.

The Washington cut-off, at Grand and Washington avenues, was opened to traffic at 7:30 a. m. today. Its cost was $214,000. It was built to eliminate a traffic-jumping jog in Washington avenue west of Grand avenue.

The construction has created a triangle and split Washington avenue into what probably will be known as North Washington avenue and South Washington avenue, two streets only 300 feet long and east of Grand avenue.

Director of Streets and Sewers Talbert said that it had been suggested to him that the triangle be occupied by a memorial to the city's men in the service in this war. In any event, it will immediately be converted to a grass plot by the Park Department.

South Washington avenue, as created, is 36 feet wide and will be reserved for eastbound traffic exclusively. North Washington avenue is 48 feet wide and will be given over to both east and west traffic. Both streets will have parking space. The Street Department has ordered that henceforth parking shall be eliminated on Grand avenue from Liddell boulevard to Morgan street.

VICTORY BREAD SOON TO GIVE WAY TO WHOLE WHEAT BREAD

Change Made Possible by Big American and Australian Wheat

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—"Victory" bread soon will disappear from the American table. Its place will be taken by bread made from whole wheat flour. Victory for American and allied arms, however, is responsible only in part for the change. It is chiefly due, according to the Food Administration, to the tremendous wheat crop raised by the American farmer this year, the vast stores in Australian and other wheat-growing countries now made available, and to a serious world shortage in dairy feeds. Milling of more wheat will tend to alleviate the shortage in dairy feeds through production of bran.

No new wheat regulations have been issued, but they may be expected as soon as the mechanical details of the change can be worked out.

BUSINESS REOPENS WITH LIFTING OF CLOSING ORDER

Influenza Restrictions Are Taken Off and Stores, Factories and Theaters Are Running Today.

SCHOOLS OPEN AT 9 A. M. TOMORROW

W. U. Faculty to Meet to Discuss Report of 60 New Cases of Disease in Dormitories Yesterday.

With the lifting of the Health Department's influenza-ban today all commercial business, which had been closed since last Saturday morning was resumed, and theaters and churches which had been closed since Oct. 7 were permitted to reopen.

A decision to withdraw the closing regulation was reached at a meeting yesterday of the Medical Advisory Committee to the Health Commissioner, which at the same time decided that schools would be permitted to open tomorrow morning, but that public meetings, gatherings and banquets would remain under the ban until next Monday morning.

The text of the order issued by Health Commissioner Starkloff after the meeting follows:

All commercial, business, religious, institutions, theaters, moving picture shows and lodges may be opened at midnight, Nov. 12, 1918. Schools are to be opened Thursday morning, Nov. 14, at regular opening times. All public gatherings, banquets and public meetings to be prohibited until Monday morning, Nov. 18. All the foregoing are to be under the special regulations to be imposed by the Health Commissioner.

Appended to this order was the following:

"It is the sense of the meeting that the proclamation of the Mayor remain in force and shall not be rescinded except on recommendation of the Medical Advisory Committee."

Dr. Starkloff explained that the notation referred to the Mayor's original emergency proclamation, which remains in effect so that closing regulations may again be applied if it is deemed necessary.

The Health Commissioner issued the following regulations after yesterday's meeting:

1. All places where persons are gathered, such as theaters, restaurants, etc., shall be restricted to the attendance at any one time to an extent that will prevent congestion.
2. All special inducements in establishments that would tend to attract large numbers of people are prohibited.
3. The United Railways Co. will limit to the seating capacity and 20 additional passengers.

Passenger elevators will be limited to two-thirds their capacity.

All establishments preparing and serving food for the public must at all times be kept in a sanitary condition.

The order says the police will be asked to enforce these regulations and businesses which fail to comply with them will be closed. The Commissioner also warns against the gathering of crowds in poorly ventilated places.

Supt. Withers of the public schools last night issued a formal order for the reopening of the schools at 9 a. m. tomorrow. A similar order as to Catholic parochial schools was issued by Chancellor Taannath of the St. Louis archdiocese. Plans were made to resume classes at St. Louis University tomorrow, though under ordinary conditions Thursday is the students' weekly holiday.

Large retail stores joined in publishing an advertisement in the newspapers notifying their employees of the resumption of business.

The number of new cases of influenza reported in St. Louis for the 24 hours ending at 11 a. m. today was 344, compared with 350 in the corresponding period yesterday. Forty-three deaths from influenza and seven from pneumonia were reported today. Yesterday's figures were 39 deaths from influenza and 11 from pneumonia.

The total number of influenza cases in St. Louis since Oct. 7 is 13,342. In the same period there have been 746 deaths from influenza and 310 from pneumonia.

Of the new cases reported by St. Louis physicians today, 14 were at Washington University and 14 at the City Sanitarium.

EUROPEANS URGING PRESIDENT TO ATTEND PEACE CONFERENCE

Close Advisers at Washington Believed to Oppose Because of Unnecessary Risk.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Messages from high sources in Europe are reaching President Wilson urging that he personally attend the great peace conference that will settle the final issues growing out of the war. The President, it was said today, has given no indication of how he regards the suggestion, though some of those usually well informed believe he has an open mind on the subject, and may give it consideration.

Members of the President's official family are understood to be strongly advising against the step, on the ground that it would involve useless risk and it would accomplish nothing that could not be accomplished through delegates the President might select to represent America at the peace table and with whom he could keep in constant touch.

PRESIDENT HAS BEEN ASKED TO PROCLAIM PEACE HOLIDAY

One Plan Is to Have Celebration on Thanksgiving Day, Religious and Patriotic.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—President Wilson has received messages from all parts of the country asking that he proclaim a national holiday in honor of the winning of this war. No decision has been reached.

One of the plans under consideration, it is stated, is for a general observance of peace day on Thanksgiving, with religious service in the morning and patriotic exercises or demonstrations in the afternoon or evening.

ALSACE-LORRAINE LEGISLATORS CONSTITUTE NATIONAL COUNCIL

PARIS, Nov. 13.—The German command has asked the French Government by wireless to request the population of Alsace-Lorraine to remain calm during the German retreat. The message adds that the population is hostile toward the German troops.

HOW SCHOOLS WILL MAKE UP TIME LOST SINCE CLOSING OCT. 7

Superintendent of Instruction Withers, in advance of the reopening of public schools tomorrow, announced today how the 26½ days lost since Oct. 7, on account of the influenza closing order, would be made up.

Twenty-five minutes will be added to each school day for the 147 remaining days of the present term. This will be equivalent to approximately 15 days. The other 10 days are to be made up by a reorganization of the methods of instruction, and more intensive effort, including group exercises, socialized recitation and condensed intersessions between studies.

In order to add 25 minutes to the daily school hours the forenoon session will be begun promptly at 8:45 and close promptly at noon, and the afternoon session will begin at 1:10 and close at 2:30. The new plan will exclude the play-time before sessions unless the pupils arrive at the school yards earlier than heretofore. It will also exclude the five minutes formerly allowed for the pupils to prepare for their departure at the end of the sessions.

Americans Mixed With Germans After Fighting Ended Monday.

By the Associated Press.

PARIS, Monday, Nov. 11.—When dawn came this morning there was no hint of the cessation of hostilities. East of the Meuse, regardless of the situation, the American second army attacked in force at 3 o'clock. The onslaught was preceded by a tremendous barrage, which was returned in kind by the enemy. For three hours the Americans swept forward, hurling themselves against the wire entanglements.

The German gunfire was devastating. Then, at exactly one minute before 11, like a final thunder crash on the clearing of a storm, the guns on both sides were suddenly silent. The silence was more startling than the deafening roar of the barrage. For a brief minute intermittent rifle fire followed, then came a pause, punctuated by ripping cheers from the trenches on both sides of the line.

What followed on one sector was perhaps one of the most singular events of the war. Against the sky line figures were suddenly silhouetted. They appeared cautiously at first, but soon growing bolder along the line, they stood upright. These were Germans.

Germans Joined in Cheering.

The Americans were not so cautious. As the barrage died ending in a final husky rumble in the distance from the big guns, runners were springing along the fire line. Instantly comprehending, the whole

U. S. MEN WORKING AS USUAL PENDING ORDER FROM FOCH

First Army Units Continue to Build Temporary Houses, While Trucks Move Forward With Food.

MEN, COMFORTABLE, DISCUSS FUTURE

"What Part Will We Play as Army of Occupation?" and "When Will We Go Home?" They Ask.

By the Associated Press.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMIES ON THE MEUSE AND MOSELLE, Tuesday, Nov. 12.—The relaxation resulting from the cessation of hostilities resolved itself today into the speculation among officers and men as to several questions.

They asked: "What will become of the army now? What part will Americans take as an army of occupation? When will we start for home?"

Along the front there was an absence of Germans today. Hundreds came to the American lines yesterday afternoon to exchange greetings, but, according to reports most of them have started for home. American troops, therefore, made themselves comfortable along the front lines and discussed the future.

Nothing official as to further movements has been received. Action will depend upon the decision of the allies and the Americans are awaiting directions from Marshal Foch. Both the First and Second Armies are awaiting word to carry out orders.

All detachments in every branch of the service are being kept up to wartime efficiency, pending an order to move forward as part of the army of occupation. When orders arrive the Americans will be prepared to fill the bill in every particular.

At First Army headquarters work went on as usual. Gangs of men were depainting buildings, according to plans laid weeks ago. Scores of barracks were erected recently for housing American troops and German prisoners. Along the roadways signposts were being strung copper wires and new poles but today, instead of trucks loaded with great shell cases and cartridges, there was moving a continuous train of vehicles carrying food, wood and clothing.

The Americans figure that they have enough ammunition at the front to last for weeks even if the armistice does not continue. The famous Ypres salient, which was a hotbed for years and by which Verdun was saved from the Germans, was buzzing with traffic today just as if the war was still going on.

Monday night the American front lines were like Fourth of July at home. The display continued Tuesday night, but was not as extensive as on Monday. All sorts of rockets and flares were fired by the infantrymen and artillerymen. The Germans built a large number of bonfires.

VERDICT OF CARELESSNESS IN DEATH BY AUTOMOBILE

Finding of Coroner's Jury in Case of Millwright Injured on North Broadway Sunday Night.

A verdict of criminal carelessness was returned today against Jacob Wikette, 3713 Baldwin street, by a Coroner's jury at the inquest into the death of Ira W. Volmer, 34 years old, a millwright, 1822 East Prairie avenue, Monday from injuries suffered when struck by Wikette's automobile Sunday night.

Witnesses testified that Volmer was waiting for a street car at 6800 North Broadway, and that Wikette's machine was southbound on the east side of Broadway, in violation of traffic regulations, when the accident occurred.

Wikette said he was not aware he had struck Volmer until Mrs. Wikette told him he had hit someone.

Text of Reply to the German Chancellor's Appeal to Wilson

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Secretary Lansing's note to the Swiss Minister, dated Nov. 12, replying to the request of the German Chancellor, Ebert, that the President take up the question of sending supplies to Germany, follows:

"I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your note of today, transmitting to the President the text of a cable inquiring whether this Government is ready to send foodstuffs into Germany without delay if public order is maintained in Germany, and an equitable distribution of food is guaranteed.

Reply to Germans. "I should be grateful if you would transmit the following reply to the German Government:

"At a joint session of the two houses of Congress on Nov. 11, the President of the United States announced that the representatives of the associated Governments in the Supreme War Council at Versailles, have, by unanimous resolution, assured the peoples of the Central Empires that everything that is possible in the circumstances will be done to supply them with food and relieve the distressing want that is in so many places threatening their very lives; and that steps are to be taken immediately to organize these efforts at relief in the same systematic manner that they were organized in the case of Belgium.

"Furthermore, the President expressed the opinion that by the use of the idle tonnage of the central empires it ought presently to be possible to lift the fear of utter misery from their oppressed populations and set their minds and energies free for the great and hazardous tasks of political construction which now face them on every hand.

"Accordingly, the President now directs me to state that he is ready to consider favorably the supplying of foodstuffs to Germany and to take up the matter immediately with the allied Governments, provided he can be assured that public order is being and will continue to be maintained in Germany, and that an equitable distribution of food can be clearly guaranteed.

LONDON, Nov. 13.—The allied high command has sent to the German high command by French wireless a message that there can be no modification of the conditions of the armistice, including the annexes, at this time.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Germany's appeal for food has been answered by President Wilson with the promise that he will take up with the allies immediately the question of sending supplies if assurances can be given that order will be maintained in Germany and an equitable distribution of food can be guaranteed.

Secretary Lansing handed to Minister Sulzer of Switzerland today a reply to a note delivered yesterday, transmitting a message from Chancellor Ebert, urgently requesting that the President inform him by wireless whether the United States would send foodstuffs under such conditions.

It says steps are to be taken at once to organize relief work in the same systematic manner in which it was carried out in Belgium, but that the President desires to be assured that public order will be maintained in Germany and that an equitable distribution of food can be clearly guaranteed.

Before the usual Cabinet meeting Secretary Lansing conferred with the President, and it is understood the German appeal was discussed by the President with the Cabinet.

May Use German Ships.

While every stipulation of the armistice terms must be kept in force to prevent the possibility of treachery by the beaten enemy, it is declared, such rolling stock and ships as may be necessary to provide food and other essentials will be put into use in Germany and on the seas.

Among other things, it is understood the plan is to put the German merchant marine into service as soon as possible after the problem created by the naval revolt is cleared up, and such vessels necessary will be employed for sending supplies through German ports.

Due precautions will be taken, of course, to see that these supplies are devoted to the purposes for which they are intended. President Wilson has already instructed Food Administrator Hoover to send a representative to the United States in dealing with the situation, which will include the care of the German populace as well as the victims of the war in France and Belgium.

It is suggested in some quarters that Dr. Sol's plea may be designed to lay the foundation for an attempt independent of Germany to secure general modification of the armistice terms before the peace conference.

FAMOUS OLD RECIPE FOR COUGH SYRUP

Easily and cheaply made at home, but it beats them all for quick results.

Thousands of housewives have found that they can save two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, by using this well known old recipe for making cough syrup at home. It is simple and cheap but it really has no equal for prompt results. It takes right hold of a cough and gives immediate relief, usually stopping an ordinary cough in 24 hours or less.

Get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any druggist, pour it into a pint bottle, and add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, keeps perfectly and lasts a family a long time.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every inch of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the membranes, and gradually but surely the annoying throat tickle and dreaded cough disappear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, whooping cough or bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its healing effect on the membranes.

Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

New Bavarian Government Sends Message to President Wilson.

COPENHAGEN, Tuesday, Nov. 12.—The new Bavarian Government has sent a message to President Wilson through Switzerland expressing its fears that the armistice terms will bring chaos to the disordered young republic, and requesting that Great Britain, France and Italy be asked to punish the guilty. The message adds that the German autocracy and military party do not deserve mercy.

Verdict of Homicide.

A verdict of homicide, due to parties unknown, was returned today by a coroner's jury at the inquest over Handy Hapner, a negro, 34 years old, 2394 Scott avenue, who was struck by an automobile at Jefferson avenue and Randolph street Monday night and who died in an ambulance on the way to the city hospital. The driver of the automobile did not stop.

FAMOUS OLD RECIPE FOR COUGH SYRUP

Easily and cheaply made at home, but it beats them all for quick results.

Thousands of housewives have found that they can save two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, by using this well known old recipe for making cough syrup at home. It is simple and cheap but it really has no equal for prompt results. It takes right hold of a cough and gives immediate relief, usually stopping an ordinary cough in 24 hours or less.

Get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any druggist, pour it into a pint bottle, and add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, keeps perfectly and lasts a family a long time.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every inch of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the membranes, and gradually but surely the annoying throat tickle and dreaded cough disappear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, whooping cough or bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its healing effect on the membranes.

Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

LONDON, Tuesday, Nov. 12.—Germany has requested the President of the United States, according to a German wireless message from Berlin, to arrange immediately for the opening of peace negotiations, there being a pressing danger of famine.

The message, the second one sent by Foreign Secretary Solf to Secretary of State Lansing, said:

"The armistice being concluded, the German Government requests the President of the United States to arrange for the opening of peace negotiations.

"For the purpose of their acceleration the German Government proposes first of all to take into view the conclusion of a preliminary peace and asks for a communication as to what place and at what time the negotiations might begin.

"As there is a pressing danger of famine, the German Government is particularly anxious for the negotiations to begin immediately."

DUTCH TO PERMIT WILHELM TO STAY, LONDON REPORT

Dispatch From Holland Says Former Emperor Is to Be Interned on Same Terms as High Army Officers.

SAID TO HAVE TAKEN THE TITLE OF COUNT

Asserted to Have Fled Only After Hearing Armistice Terms—Details of Arrival at Place of Refuge.

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, Tuesday, Nov. 12.—Holland will permit William Hohenzollern to remain on Dutch soil on the same terms of internment as other high officers of the German army. He has taken the name of Count William Hohenzollern and is expected to buy an estate and remain in Holland, according to an Amsterdam dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Co.

The Telegram of Amsterdam says that he was allowed to take only his personal property from his train, the nonpersonal property which was brought to Holland being confiscated, as is usual in internment cases. Recent dispatches have stated that the former Emperor had taken a carload of archives with him into Holland.

Holland's hesitancy in dealing with William Hohenzollern is ascribed to the extremely indefinite state of public opinion in Holland by the Amsterdam correspondent of the Mail. He says that German revolutionary soldiers along the Dutch frontier say that they were strictly ordered to prevent the former Emperor and his family from escaping into Holland.

Late Saturday night, and shortly after 6 o'clock on Sunday morning, he says, the sound of cannon could be heard from German territory. It was reported that a fight had taken place between revolutionaries and royalist troops and that both sides had used artillery.

line of doughboys leaped from trenches, fox holes and shell craters, splitting the silence with a shrill cheer. The roar of voices was like an outburst at some great college contest in America when a contestant scores a classic play.

Strange to relate, the defeated enemy joined vociferously in the cheering. The world war was finished.

At one minute before 11 o'clock it would have meant death to show oneself above shelter. Not more than a minute after the hour, the rolling plain was alive with cheering, shouting men, friend and enemy alike. Not many minutes later Germans and Americans were coming along the narrow stretch of ground so fiercely fought over, some shyly and awkwardly, like embarrassed schoolboys. The first advances followed by offers from the Americans of cigarettes, chocolate and chewing gum. The Germans in some places reciprocated with offers of hot coffee, bread and sausage.

Conversations in German. The order forbidding fraternizing was strict, but the novelty of the situation at times overcame prudence, and doughboys surreptitiously visited nearby enemy dugouts. Along the barbed wire at a road crossing, some doughboys and Germans began a brisk battle for souvenirs. The Germans were bewildered by the number of Americans speaking German.

"Sure, my old man was born in Germany," laughingly remarked one stalwart private.

"That's nothing," said another; "my mother and father were both born there."

A middle-aged landstrummer exclaimed: "Yes, the war is finished, thank the good God. My only wish is to get back to Germany."

A slender, pink-cheeked machine gunner said: "Yes, I know the Kaiser has abdicated."

Instantly a young aristocrat raised his voice: "There will be revolution in Germany; a new Emperor will succeed."

PREDICTS DEFICIT IN CITY FUNDS

Comptroller Nolte called the heads of city departments together today and informed them that a rate they were spending funds, the city would have a deficit of $595,322 in revenue at the end of the fiscal year.

He declared that expenditures in every department must be cut down, as he would refuse to issue warrants for funds not in the treasury. Increases in salaries paid city employees caused the expenditure of $40,000 above normal expenditures during October. The blanket bill covering the increases is for the duration of the only, but the Comptroller pointed out that peace might not be concluded before the end of the fiscal year.

of the Night and Day Bank required Frederick to sign a resignation of the office of President of the Board of Aldermen and place it in their hands before his election. It was their purpose, after the board had been organized, to require him to resign, giving such reasons as he might see fit.

Arrest of Frederick. He was indicted on four charges of forgery in the sale of deeds of trust to customers, and in his dealings with the Night and Day Bank.

Frederick pleaded guilty to one of the charges April 24, 1915, was sentenced by Judge William T. Jones to 10 years in the penitentiary. Since that time, two attempts have been made to obtain his release, on the ground of poor health. In each case, strong protests have been sent to the Governor by the Real Estate Exchange, of which Frederick was at one time president. The organization has taken the ground that for the protection of the public, fraud in deeds of trust cannot be condoned.

The exposure and incarceration of Frederick were followed almost immediately by similar events in the case of Charles C. Crone, a North St. Louis real estate dealer, who pleaded guilty to similar frauds, and who is still in the penitentiary.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application of two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous.

This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease—ADV.

WAR INDUSTRIES BOARD LIGHTENS ALL REGULATIONS

Restrictions Removed Entirely From Construction of Public Utilities and Improvements.

42 INDUSTRIAL LINES AFFECTED

Passenger Automobile Makers Most Affected by Rule Allowing 50 Per Cent Increase of Output.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—As the first step in national industrial readjustment from a war to a peace basis, the War Industries Board yesterday announced modifications in the restrictions against nonwar construction and manufacturing.

All industries whose peace time output has been curtailed in the interest of the nation's war program may now increase their output 50 per cent of the amount of restriction imposed by the board, while all restrictions are removed against the building of farm or ranch buildings, structures, roadways and other public utilities and the construction, maintenance, improvement or development by federal, state or municipal authorities of highways, roads, boulevards, bridges, streets, parks, playgrounds, and public utilities, including water, sewerage, light, power and the street railways.

Forty-two specific industries, chief among them the passenger automobile industry, are affected by the modifications of curtailments imposed on manufacturers since the war began.

They include: Agricultural implements and farm operating equipment, including tractors; heating and cooking appliances and devices using coal, coke, wood, gas, oil and gasoline; canoes, bicycles and tin radiators, family sewing machines, electric vacuum cleaners; metal beds, cots and couches, including bunks and metal springs; linoleum and rag-felt floor covering; black, galvanized and enameled ware and tin plate household utensils; pianos, piano-players and automatic pianos and parts, talking machines, including motors, accessories and needles, baby carriages, corsets, bicycles and sporting goods; refrigerators, washing machines and clothes wringers; ice cream freezers, glass bottles and jars, tin plate, pottery, lawn mowers, electric fans, pocket watches and balances, and rat and animal traps; hand stamping and marking devices, pocket knives and similar products; road machinery, builders' hardware, and cash registers, and pneumatic automobile tires.

Under the new ruling passenger automobiles may henceforth be manufactured to the extent of 75 per cent of the annual output. Last August the automobile industry was required to manufacture passenger cars on a basis of 50 per cent of annual output, and warped to get on a 100 per cent war basis by Jan. 1, 1919.

The priorities division of the War Industries Board, it was announced, will assist as far as possible industries in procuring labor, transportation, fuel and materials to enable them to get on a normal basis as rapidly as conditions warrant, but precedence will be given to stimulate production of cargo ships and the army and navy requirements and the nation's proportion of "the enormous volume of materials, equipment and supplies as should be required of the reconstruction and rehabilitation of the devastated territories of Europe."

Precedence for These. Precedence also will be given food and coal production, that of oil, natural gas, textiles and clothing and minerals, public utility requirements and to permit and stimulate intensive developments of inland waterways.

All limitations on the production of building materials, including brick, cement, lime, hollow tile and lumber also were removed in connection with modifications of the restrictions on buildings, and they may be delivered subject to modification of the nonwar construction program announced.

Besides those relating to municipal and public utility building, restrictions on nonwar building lifted include those against the construction of projects connected with the extension, expansion or development of mines of every character connected with the production and refining of mineral oils and natural gas and the construction, alteration or extension of or repairs or addition to plants engaged in producing, milling, refining, preserving, refrigerating or storing food and feeds.

STEEL TRUST HEAD SAYS BUSINESS MUST GUARD AGAINST PANIC

SCENES IN NO MAN'S LAND WHEN AMERICANS BEGAN TO FRATERNIZE WITH GERMANS

Iron Crosses Offered Freely to Our Men in Exchange for Cigarettes—Teutons, Happy Over Armistice, Eager to Get Home.

By LINCOLN EYRE, A Special Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch and New York World. Copyright, 1918, by Press Publishing Co., New York World.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY NEAR VERDUN, Monday, Nov. 11, (7 p. m.).—The first flocks of the 1700 German airplanes which are to be turned over to the allies by the terms of the armistice were winging across the lines to settle down peacefully in our airfields when I walked toward the road from Haumont toward the front today.

The road itself and the fields alongside it bore evidences in the torn-up soil and slashed trees of the terrific strife that had raged there an hour before. In many places the earth was stained with fresh blood spots, though all our dead and wounded had already been removed. Suddenly, among the trees I caught sight of barbed wire marking the German line. It ranged on either side of it were groups of men apparently engaged in amicable conversation. As I drew nearer I saw that most of them wore the gray-green cloth of Germany, and the rest our own olive drab.

It was an uncanny spectacle. For four years I had known No Man's Land as a place where one might never show one's self, never stand upright without risking sudden death. And here were men who, a little while before, were striving to kill one another by every known weapon that scientific warfare has produced, chatting and laughing together.

Iron Crosses for Cigarettes. The Germans were all smiles, and were ready to trade iron crosses and other trinkets for a package of American cigarettes. Fifty yards away a machine gun poked its snout muzzle above a low parapet, and some Germans who had been manning it were in a group with whom I talked.

They were unfeignedly delighted that the armistice had come and appeared completely indifferent to the chaotic state of affairs in the Fatherland. Most of them expressed the belief that Germany would become a republic. One stalwart young machine gunner disputed this theory, whereupon another exclaimed: "Acht! But they've already made a republic in Munich and assassinated the King of Saxony."

These men said they were to march northward immediately and would be aboard trains in a couple of hours.

"We will be back in Germany tonight," they chorused happily. The doughboys in the group said little. I caught one of them giving a particularly husky boche a black look.

"Say," he muttered, abruptly, "would it bust this armistice up if I was to give that guy a crack in the jaw?"

The German officers remained at a distance, though their men said they were just as glad as the rest that the fighting was done.

The American soldier tonight is the happiest fellow alive, he knows he has finished his job, and in such fashion that it will not have to be tackled again, in his lifetime, at least. Now all he wants is to get home.

In Final Victory. To the Rainbow Division, which was the third American contingent to reach France, belongs the glory of assuring the capture of Sedan and the scene of the defeat of the armies of Napoleon III by the forces of the King of Prussia in 1870. That event marked the downfall of the military prestige of France. Today Sedan's loss marks the collapse of Prussian militarism.

In close company with the Rainbow boys, aces of the Regular Army First and Second Divisions drove left for Washington to confer there tomorrow with the War Industries Board regarding steps necessary to return the steel trade to a peace basis. Mr. Gary cautioned the public to "exercise prudence, deliberation and courage," as "much depends upon the attitude as the speech of men." He added that "it is easy to precipitate a feeling of demoralization and no more difficult to develop a sentiment of confidence and serenity."

All Must Trim Sails. Asserting that although there would be reduction in purchases for military purposes which might interrupt the conduct of general business, Mr. Gary asserted that there would still be a normal and certain volume of business. Any attempt to secure more than a proper share of this business," he said, "would impede rather than accelerate prosperity, so that we must all trim our sails in accordance with the drift and amount of business." "If all business men recognize conditions and conduct their different lines so as to adjust the questions of supply and demand on a legitimate basis, all will be benefited and may look forward with confidence," said Gary.

"Upon a careful survey of the situation, it will be found there are many reasons for believing prosperity will continue in the richest of all countries. If industry is protected and fostered by authority rather than to attack business effort. There will be study, reflection, friendly concern shown in relation to the needs and requests of enterprise and investment. Legislation and administration will be founded on accor-

All Churches Asked by Mayor to Join in Thanksgiving Sunday

MAYOR KIEL today issued a statement urging that next Sunday should be observed in all St. Louis churches as a day of thanksgiving for our victory in the war.

At the suggestion of the Rev. Dr. W. C. Bittling, pastor of the Second Baptist Church, King's highway and Washington boulevard, the Mayor issued the following statement:

To the People of St. Louis: There are very few who do not feel that the victory of the world war was accomplished with the help of Almighty God and that His hand has guided the destinies of men through the past few years to the triumph that justice might prevail.

At this time, when the annual Thanksgiving season is approaching, it is fitting that the people of this city should express their gratitude through prayer and song.

Therefore I, Henry W. Kiel, Mayor of the city of St. Louis, do hereby respectfully suggest, that Sunday, Nov. 17, 1918, be observed in all of the St. Louis churches as a day of thanksgiving and praise to Jehovah for the wonderful happenings of the past week.

I am relying on the churches to abide by the limitations prescribed by the Health Commissioner in the same manner that they have supported his orders during the past few weeks.

HENRY W. KIEL, Mayor.

ONLY CHANGE IN DRAFT WORK IS END OF INDUCTING MEN

District Appeals Board Here With Outgoing Questionnaires.

The only change made so far in the work of the draft boards by the cessation of fighting is that no more men are to be inducted, and boards are to send outgoing questionnaires to the War Department.

The classification of men 19 to 36 years old, inclusive, will continue, and questionnaires will be sent to those who have not received them. Discharges from Washington yesterday stated that men under 19 and over 36 who have received questionnaires need not fill them out, but that they should send them to the district board.

On the morning of the 12th, the draft board will continue its session to pass on industrial claims and decide appeals in dependency claims. It is not believed the work of classifying of soldiers in the United States will continue as usual. The District Board will remain in session to pass on industrial claims and decide appeals in dependency claims. Physical examination of registrants will continue as usual. The District Board will remain in session to pass on industrial claims and decide appeals in dependency claims. It is not believed the work of classifying of soldiers in the United States will continue as usual.

Inductions into the Navy and Marine Corps are still permitted. For a registrant to enter these branches, he must send an application to Washington, from where his local board is instructed to induct him.

Draft officials believe it is probable that questionnaires will later be sent to all registrants who have not received them, in order that the Government may use them in making an industrial survey. It is pointed out that with all men between 18 and 45, inclusive, registered, an excellent opportunity is afforded for getting the facts on the labor situation.

8 JAPANESE EDUCATORS HERE Party on Tour Inspecting School Systems Extends Stay Until Tomorrow

Eight Japanese educators who are in this country studying school systems congratulated themselves today that they were in St. Louis because the influenza ban was lifted.

They had heard about the schools here, and wanted to see them in operation. Since they landed at San Francisco two weeks ago, they have seen a succession of quarantined schoolhouses.

They were scheduled to depart from here today, but decided to stay until tomorrow afternoon, and visit schools in session tomorrow. They are inspecting a number of school buildings in South St. Louis today. They visited a few yesterday, including Soldan High School. The party is headed by T. Moriya, superintendent of Tokyo schools.

THE EASIEST WAY TO END DANDRUFF

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This dissolves it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and destroy every single scale and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be soft, lustrous, glossy, silky, and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.—ADV.

FIGHTING REPORTED IN BERLIN ON MONDAY

Royalist Officers Said to Have Fired on Revolutionaries on Unter den Linden.

By the Associated Press. COPENHAGEN, Nov. 13.—Fresh fighting broke out in Berlin on Monday, according to messages received here from the German capital. Loyal officers opened fire from the royal stables and attacked the revolutionaries with machine guns on the Unter den Linden. Several persons were killed.

Telegrams found in the palace of the former German Crown Prince, according to a Berlin telegram to the National Tidende, show that it had been planned to send loyal troops from the front to Berlin in an attempt to crush the revolution.

The amended terms in some respects favor the defeated enemy, but other provisions completely offset slight favors granted. Chief among the changes made by Marshal Foch was the inclusion of a provision under which Germany is forced to give up her entire fleet of submarines.

The original term as to the submarines provided for the turning over to the allies and the United States of 160 U-boats. The amendment further provides that the German submarine fleet must be surrendered within 14 days.

Another of the 18 terms which were amended provides that the designated units of the German fleet which are to be surrendered must be prepared to leave their ports within seven days after the signing of the armistice. No time limit was fixed in the original draft. Instead of 50,000 railroad cars, the Germans are required to surrender 150,000 cars.

The number of machine guns to be turned over to the associated Governments is reduced from 30,000 to 25,000. German troops in East Africa are required to evacuate that territory, instead of surrendering. Special reference is made in the amended terms to the repatriation of German prisoners of war at the conclusion of hostilities. Territories which belonged to Austria-Hungary before the war are added to those which must be evacuated.

Change As to Russian Provinces. Russian provinces are to be evacuated "as soon as the allies, taking into account the internal situation of these territories, shall decide that the time for this has come," instead of immediately. Provision also is made on the amended terms for an armistice commission.

The additions and changes close with this: "This armistice has been signed the 11th day of November, 1918, at 5 o'clock, French time. (F. Foch, R. E. Weymans, Ersberger, A. Oberndorff, Winterfeldt, Vanselow.)"

By the Associated Press. BASEL, Monday, Nov. 11.—The crews of the German battleships Posen, Ostfriesland, Nassau and Oldenburg have joined the revolutionary movement, according to a dispatch from Brunswick, Prussian Holstein.

The four battleships named are among the largest in the German navy. The Posen and Nassau are of 18,600 tons each, the Ostfriesland and Oldenburg 22,400 tons each.

Mutinous Force in Belgium Defeats Loyal Body of Troops.

By the Associated Press. AMSTERDAM, Tuesday, Nov. 12.—The German troops who mutinied at the Beverloo camp in Belgium and raised the red flag, says the Handelsblad, attacked another force supporting the former Emperor. This force was defeated and fled to the Dutch frontier, where it was disarmed Monday.

Soldiers and Officers Said to Have Exchanged Shots in Berlin.

By the Associated Press. AMSTERDAM, Nov. 13.—There were exchanges of shots in Berlin Sunday between soldiers and the few officers remaining loyal to the Hohenzollerns, according to advices from the German capital. These exchanges occurred around the Central Hotel and the railway station in the Friedrichstrasse, the Victoria and Astoria cafes, and the Royal Library, from which the officers fired at the soldiers, some of whom were wounded.

PLANS FOR DEMOBILIZATION TO GO BEFORE PRESIDENT SOON

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Plans for demobilization of the military and naval forces of the United States now being prepared by the War, Navy and Labor Departments, will be submitted soon to President Wilson. Preliminary details provide for the mustering out of men on the basis of length of service and on the ability of trades and occupations to absorb them.

Labor needs of employers already have been canvassed by the War Industries Board through questionnaires. Community labor boards and local draft boards will co-operate in determining the nature of work and when it will be available.

The work of the Department of Labor in the assimilation of the returned soldiers and sailors will be conducted through the United States Employment Service and the War Labor Policies Board. Creation within the War Department of a new bureau to handle the problem is expected. Labor Department officials have expressed the opinion that, under the plans now being formulated by the three departments, the more than 4,000,000 in service can be demobilized without any resultant unemployment.

SPAIN SATISFIED BY WAR'S END

By the Associated Press. MADRID, Tuesday, Nov. 12. (Havas).—The Spanish Chamber of Deputies today after an exciting debate adopted by 169 votes to 2 a resolution to express in the official report of the sitting the satisfaction of the chamber over the happy ending of the war. The proposition was accepted by the Government.

The Chamber previously had rejected by 79 to 56 a proposition to send congratulations to the allied countries on their victory.

Germany Loses All U-Boats Under Terms as Amended by Foch Before Signing

18 of Articles Adopted by Supreme Council Changed Under Limited Power—Some Concessions Made, Some Conditions Made More Drastic.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Appeals of the German armistice envoys to Marshal Foch for modification of the terms of surrender were of little avail. This is indicated by the amended terms which were made public today. Close survey of the amendments show few deviations in essential details from the original draft which was announced to the nation Monday by President Wilson in an address before Congress.

The amended terms in some respects favor the defeated enemy, but other provisions completely offset slight favors granted. Chief among the changes made by Marshal Foch was the inclusion of a provision under which Germany is forced to give up her entire fleet of submarines. The original term as to the submarines provided for the turning over to the allies and the United States of 160 U-boats. The amendment further provides that the German submarine fleet must be surrendered within 14 days.

Another of the 18 terms which were amended provides that the designated units of the German fleet which are to be surrendered must be prepared to leave their ports within seven days after the signing of the armistice. No time limit was fixed in the original draft. Instead of 50,000 railroad cars, the Germans are required to surrender 150,000 cars. The number of machine guns to be turned over to the associated Governments is reduced from 30,000 to 25,000. German troops in East Africa are required to evacuate that territory, instead of surrendering. Special reference is made in the amended terms to the repatriation of German prisoners of war at the conclusion of hostilities. Territories which belonged to Austria-Hungary before the war are added to those which must be evacuated.

Change As to Russian Provinces. Russian provinces are to be evacuated "as soon as the allies, taking into account the internal situation of these territories, shall decide that the time for this has come," instead of immediately. ways, shall remain. Thirty-one instead of 25 days are allowed for handing over the materials. Thirty-six days are allowed for handing over the pre-war personnel. Article 16.—Forty-eight hours is given the German command to reveal destructive measures, such as polluted springs and wells, and to reveal and assist in discovering and destroying mines or delayed-action fuses on evacuated territory. No time limit was fixed originally.

Article 9.—Providing for the right of requisition by the United States and allied armies in occupied territory, has the clause added "subject to regulation of accounts with those whom it may concern."

Article 10.—Providing for the repatriation without reciprocity of all allied and United States prisoners of war, including persons under trial or convicted, has the following added:

"This condition annuls the previous conventions on the subject of the exchange of prisoners of war, including the one of July, 1913, in course of ratification. However, the repatriation of German prisoners of war interned in Holland and in Switzerland shall continue as before. The repatriation of German prisoners of war shall be regulated at the conclusion of the preliminaries of peace."

All U-Boats Included. Article 12.—Providing for the withdrawal of German troops from territory which belonged before the war to Russia, Rumania and Turkey, is rewritten. Territory which belonged to Austria-Hungary is added to that from which the Germans must withdraw immediately, and as to territory which belonged to Russia it is provided that the German troops now there shall withdraw within the frontiers of Germany "as soon as the allies, taking into account the internal situation of those territories," shall decide that the time for this has come.

Article 15.—"Renunciation" is substituted for "abandonment" in stipulating that the treaties of Bucharest and Brest-Litovsk are nullified.

Article 16.—Providing free access for the allies into territory evacuated through the German eastern frontier, is changed so as to declare such access is for the purpose of conveying supplies to the populations "and for the purpose of maintaining order" instead of "or for any other purpose."

Article 17.—Originally providing for the "unconditional capitulation" within one month of all German forces operating in East Africa, is substituted by a clause requiring only "evacuation by all German forces operating in East Africa within a period to be fixed by the allies."

GIRLS! ACT NOW! HAIR COMING OUT SIGN OF DANDRUFF

A small bottle of "Danderine" keeps hair thick, strong, beautiful.

Girls! Try this! Doubles beauty of your hair in a few moments.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable luster, softness and luxuriance.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine for a few cents at any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just use a little Danderine.—ADV.

5 DETECTIVES HELD FOR FREIGHT THEFTS

Woman and Junk Dealer Also Arrested in Connection With Robberies of $100,000.

Five railroad detectives, who were employed to prevent theft from freight trains and freight houses, were arrested last night on Federal warrants charging them with loot-ing the cars and depots that they were paid to protect. The railroads charge that the railroad detectives in the last month stole freight and merchandise valued at nearly $100,- 000.

Another man, who is said to have made a confession, is under arrest at Houston, Tex., and will be brought here.

Detective Chief Hannegan and former Chief of Detectives Samuel Al-lender brought about the arrests. Al-lender is chief special agent for the Frisco and M. & T. Railroads.

The looting had been going on for a month, it is charged.

The detectives arrested were William Manwaring, 44 years old, of 4189 North Twelfth street, who, as chief local special agent for the
M. & T., supervised the employing of the other detectives; George
P. Deuser, 53, of 739 North Euclid avenue; Julius E. Quade, 45, 122
North Second street, St. Charles;
George M. Hetrick, 37, 3214A North Newstead avenue, and Earl Debo, 39, of 3910 Westminster place.

The woman under arrest is Mrs.
Sophie Doyle, 30 years old, employed at Manwaring's home as housekeeper. She is charged with having had knowledge of the plot and with having concealed some of the stolen property.

The junk dealer arrested was Harry and Jacob Weisman, brothers, 22 and 20 years old, of 1424 North Fifteenth street, who have been doing business under the name of Weisman's Junk Yard at 1225 North Seventh street.

The loot consists of copper, pig-tin, cigars, silks and white rubber goods. The railroads charge that laborers employed by the railroads to haul goods from freight cars to freight depots were used, without their own knowledge, to transfer the stolen goods from cars or freight platforms to trucks belonging to the alleged gang and in which the goods were conveyed to the alleged "fence."

The police say that after a whole carload of copper had been stolen from a freight platform it was hailed to the Weisman junk yard and melted, after which it was sold to a factory which has a war contract. It also is charged that 10,000 10-cent cigars were sold at 40 cents each. Forty-four bars of pig-tin, each weighing 40 pounds, were stolen from one shipment, it is alleged.

Thefts from freight cars were concealed, it is charged, by the sealing of the cars by the special agents after the thefts. Thus the thefts were not discovered until the shipments had reached their destination, and by that time they had passed through so many different hands that it was difficult to trace the theft. Most of the goods sold have been traced to the merchants who bought them.

U. S. HASTENS PROGRAM FOR RE-INSURANCE OF SOLDIERS

Government Will Arrange Change at Rates at Least One-fourth Less Than Private Agencies Charge,
By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Preparations by the Government for re-insuring the lives of soldiers and sailors on their return have been hastened by the signing of the armistice. Regulations have not yet been fully drafted but it is certain that the 250,000 men now being discharged will be permitted within five years after peace is declared to convert it without further medical examination into ordinary life, 20-pay life, endowment maturing at the age of 62 or other prescribed forms of insurance.

This insurance will be arranged by the Government, not by private companies, and the cost is expected to be at least one-fourth less than similar forms by private agencies. The minimum amount of insurance to be insured probably will be $1000 and the maximum $10,000.

There will be provision for payments in case of disability as well as death according to the tentative plan.
The insurance may be purchased by any soldier, sailor or marine—officer, or enlisted—and by women members of the army or navy nurse corps, provided they already hold Government voluntary life insurance. About 95 per cent of the 4,500,000 men in the service are covered by this insurance, which expires after they get back to civilian life and cease paying premiums. This is the system devised to replace the old pension plan of providing for ex-soldiers and sailors.

reservation that any future claims or demands by the allies and the United States shall remain unaffected.

Article 22.—Providing for the surrender of 160 German submarines is changed to read "all submarine now existing," with the added stipulation that "those which cannot take these (take the sea) shall be dismantled of the material and personnel and shall remain under the supervision of the allies and the United States."

Armament Must Be Put on Shore.
Further provisions are added requiring that all the conditions of the article shall be carried into effect within 14 days; that submarines ready for sea shall be prepared to leave German ports immediately upon orders by wireless and the remainder at the earliest possible moment.

Article 23. Providing for the disposition of German surface warships, has additional clauses requiring that vessels designated "for internment" shall be ready to leave German ports within seven days upon directions by wireless and that the military armatment of all vessels of the auxiliary fleet shall be put on shore.

Article 26. Providing that the allied blockade remains unchanged.

Article 28. Providing conditions of evacuation of the Belgian coast (from which the Germans actually had been driven before the armistice was signed) was changed in minor particulars.

Article 34. Providing that the duration of the armistice shall be 30 days and that if its clauses are not carried into execution it may be renewed upon 48 hours' warning, has the following added:

"It is understood that the execution of articles 3 and 18 shall not warrant the denunciation of the armistice on the ground of insufficient execution within a period fixed except in the case of bad faith in carrying them into execution. In order to assure the execution of this convention under the best conditions the principle of a permanent international armistice commission is admitted. This commission shall act under the authority of the allied military and naval commanders in chief."

ALLIED TEA SHOP WAS PEACE RENDEZVOUS

Several Parties Entertained
There as Part of the Armistice Celebration Monday.

DURING the peace celebration on Monday, a popular rendezvous for numbers of persons was the Allied Tea Shop on Washington avenue near Grand, under the auspices of the American Fund for French Wounded, where 240 luncheons were served. A number of men took advantage of the central location of the Tea Shop to visit it for the first time and merry groups of men and women were seen at the tables rejoicing over the good news. Mrs. Guido Pantaleoni, who is chairman of the workroom of the St. Louis Chapter of the Italian War Relief Fund of America, whose headquarters are next to the Tea Shop, entertained a large party of the workers who were assembled at the workroom for the day.

Another party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. John Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cruden, Miss Mary Lionberger, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Francis, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Turner, Mrs. Ames Cushman and Mr. and Mrs. George Niedringhaus. Mrs. W. A. Shoemaker entertained her sister, Miss Rita Maxon, Miss May Simon and Mrs. Virgil Rule. Mrs. George L. L. Davis and Mrs. Lewis B. Ely entertained at another table, and Miss Eugenia Chouteau, Mrs. James Cahill, Mrs. Clarence Maloy and Mrs. Philip White formed another group. Dr. and Mrs. Ring, Miss Prendegast and Miss Katie Ring were another party, and Mrs. William Hardaway and a number of her co-workers who had charge of the Red Cross distribution of cartons for the soldiers' Christmas presents at one of the postoffices, formed another interesting group.

The Allied Shop at 608 North Broadway, the opening of which is assured for Saturday now that the influenza ban is lifted, will also have a luncheon and tea room and is to be run under the auspices of the American Fund for French Wounded and the Junior League.

Social Items

Mr. and Mrs. Sid Whiting of 421 Westgate avenue have announced engagement of their daughter, Miss Clarice Whiting, to William Burrell Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rogers of Kansas City, formerly of St. Louis. Mr. Rogers is now in France, where he has been for more than 18 months, having gone over with Barnes Hospital Unit No. 21. His sister, Mrs. Bruce Carpenter, until last August Miss Winifred Rogers, has frequently been the guest of Miss Whiting here. No date has been set for the wedding, as the plans are contingent upon Mr. Rogers' return to this country.

Miss Elizabeth Shapleigh Kennard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Burton Kennard of 4960 Pershing avenue, is the guest of Miss Emily Burrow of Little Rock, Ark., where she is being much entertained. Miss Burrow has on several occasions visited in St. Louis as the guest of Miss Kennard and of Miss Helen Battle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Battle of 12 Washington terrace. Miss Battle will depart tomorrow for Little Rock, where she will also be a guest of Miss Burrow.

Miss Judith Oliver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fielding W. Oliver of 4738 Westminster place, is one of the St. Louis young women who has recently returned from doing Red Cross canteen work in France. Miss Oliver had expected to return abroad to resume her duties, after a visit here, but owing to the peace declaration will not do so.

1109 OLIVE ST.OUR DAILY LIST OF BARGAINS

Some rare bargains in new and slightly used 88-note Player-Pianos, Uprights and Grand. Every Piano we sell is thoroughly guaranteed, used ones as well as new ones, and when we advertise a bargain, it is here for sale at the price advertised. Here are a few of the bargains:

No. 1—PLAYER-PIANO—A beautiful 88-note mahogany case. Just as good as new, only slightly used for demonstration. 24 rolls of music and bench. Price $395. Cash or monthly payments.

No. 2—1915 buys a fine oak case 88-note WURLITZER PLAYER, with 24 rolls of music and bench. Fully guaranteed. Case is very plain and is well worth the money.

No. 3—A BRAND NEW KIMBALL PLAYER, 88-note, for $475. Worth $100 more; greatest value on earth. Our "A Better Player-Piano for Less Money" campaign. We include 24 rolls of music and a beautiful bench. Cash or monthly payments can be had.

No. 4—KING PLAYER, 88-note, oak case. An excellent purchase for $375. A fine opportunity. Price very low; see at once. Cash or monthly payments.

No. 5—HARDMAN UPRIGHT, specialty priced at $110; in fine condition. Easy payments.

No. 6—WURLITZER APARTMENT GRAND, new only $545. 1760 style, in splendid condition; fine bargain. Cash or time.

No. 7—FANNY PLAYER, $675. Brand-new Player with the very best player action that can be had. A player that is easy to play. It can be had in any case you desire: mahogany, oak or walnut. Please do not overlook the fact that we can sell you a Better Player-Piano for Less Money and still have a balance of $75 to $100 in price. Terms can be had if desired.

No. 8—A STANDARD UPRIGHT. Could not be sold from new. A special at $85. Fully guaranteed. Easy payments.

No. 9—$220 ARTOLA PLAYER. A fine mahogany case. This Player has not been used but very little. It is a fine bargain. We include 24 rolls of music and bench. Terms made to suit.

No. 10—KINGSTON DE LUXE PLAYER, brand-new, $395. Very plain case, Colonial design. Greatest value on earth elsewhere; then come here. Our motto, "A Better Player-Piano for Less Money." Make us prove it. We include 24 rolls of music and a bench. We will hold one of these instruments for Xmas upon payment of a small deposit. Terms can also be had.

No. 11—$235 buys a slightly used KIMBALL PLAYER, oak case. This was taken from new on a Wurlitzer Player; fine bargain; music and bench included. Easy terms.

No. 12—WURLITZER DE LUXE PLAYER, with patent double sounding board, brand-new, $775. We include 24 rolls of music and a beautiful bench. There are four reasons for the musical value of the Wurlitzer Double Sounding Board. They are as follows:

The Staccato Tones are developed keen and clear.
The Legato Tones are developed with more resonance.
The Chord Tones are developed more harmoniously.
The Scale Tones are developed more uniform in quality.

Be sure to see this Player before buying. Terms can be made to suit each purchaser.

No. 13—AUTO PIANO, full 88-note, oak case, only $325. Exceptional value; has sweet tone; looks like new. Terms, $5.00 weekly.

No. 14—STRAP, mahogany case, excellent bargain, $295. Used for demonstration. Sweet, mellow tone, latest design. Case could not be sold from new. Big snap. Terms to suit.

No. 15—BALDWIN GRAND, mahogany case, slightly used; sold new for $2000; looks just like new. Can be bought very cheap. Terms to reliable party.

No. 16—KINGSTON DE LUXE, mahogany case, $395. Full 88-note, good condition throughout. Small terms acceptable.

No. 17—WEHLIN & SONS (Inverted Grand Player-Pianos) are the only inverted Grand Player-Pianos offered by any manufacturer. Owing to the fact that Player-Pianos are used considerably more than the regular pianos the inverted Grand construction is practically indestructible. Price, $450. We include 24 rolls of music and a bench to match. Terms can be had.

No. 18—MOZART UPRIGHT, $120.00, mahogany case. Has not been much used. Fine bargain. Terms $5.00 a month.

Withers' Table Comparing Proposed Teachers' Pay to Schedule Based on Increase in Living Cost Since 1910

In recommending a salary increase for the entire teaching corps of the public schools, Supt. Withers illustrates his contention that he has not asked for a payroll schedule in equal proportion to the advanced cost of living, by giving out the following comparative statement of salaries of 1909-10, their present equivalents (assuming that $1 then had the same purchasing power as $1.50 now has) and the corresponding salaries now proposed by him.

TITLE	Salary	Equivalent	Proposed	Difference	Per Cent
Assistant superintendents	$4,500	$6,750	$5,375	$1,375	-20.4
Principal high school	4,000	6,000	5,275	725	-12.1

BOARD REFUSES PAY RAISE TO ALL TEACHERS

Adoption of Withers' Plan Blocked by Minority Opposing Increase for Those Getting Over $3150.

The Board of Education last night, by a vote of 6 to 4, rejected Superintendent Withers' proposed schedule of increased salaries for the entire teaching corps of the public schools.

The suggested scale, which had the support of the majority of the Committee on Finance, would have added $550,000 to the annual payroll of the Department of Instruction.

which, it was said, could be spared from the surplus funds of the School Board until such time as legislation necessary for increased taxation could be had. Thus, had Dr. Withers' recommendation been accepted, the teachers would have been granted the immediate financial relief they had demanded.

The adoption of the proposed salary increase was blocked by a dissenting report from B. H. Plueme, minority member of the Committee on Finance, in which he objected to an increase being granted to teachers receiving more than $3150 a year. This would exclude the assistant superintendents, the principal of the Harris Teachers' College and the principals of high schools.

Minority Report Argued.
In supporting the Plueme report, Frank X. Hiemenz, a member of the Board of Education, said that, in his opinion, only the salaries of teachers receiving $3150 a year and less should be considered for proposed increase at present. He would have excluded the principals of elementary schools, head assistants at high schools and first assistants at high schools.

C. W. Johnson, who presented the report of the majority members of the Committee on Finance, declared that the salaries of the teachers of the higher grades needed consideration just as urgently as did those of the lower grade teachers. It was only just, he said, for the board to recognize the financial needs of the whole teaching corps.

Under the parliamentary rules of the board the Plueme report could not be considered as part of the report of the Committee on Finance, and, after considerable debate, the minority report was introduced as a resolution and referred to the Committee on Instruction.

Meeting Next Tuesday.
A vote on the majority report was then taken and after it had been defeated it was referred back to the Committee on Instruction for further consideration, together with the Plueme resolution.

On motion of Hiemenz, President Wolfner declared a recess until next Tuesday afternoon, and instructed the Committees on Instruction and Finance to be ready then to report definitely on the question of salary increase.

The meeting was marked by verbal tilts indicating the Board of Education is divided on the question of salary increase. All members previously had gone on record as favoring more pay for the rank and file of the teaching corps, but the recommendations of Supt. Withers brought forth opposition from several members.

Withers' Recommendation.
Supt. Withers recommended an increase for every member of the teaching corps, except himself. He stated that in arranging the proposed schedule he had been guided by Government statistics covering the increased cost of living and by a desire to see the public school system of St. Louis kept up to its present high standard of efficiency. To maintain that standard, he said, it was necessary to surround the Superintendent of Instruction with the best aids obtainable. Brains must be purchased, he said, and at a price that would permit those who had "m to live up to the standard that their professional career demanded. Food, lodging and clothing were not the only expenses which teachers have to meet, he said. They must be students in order to hold their places, and must live as such.

FAKE SHOE MACHINERY MAN TAKEN TO NEW HAMPSHIRE

Order for George H. Porter's Removal to That State Issued by Federal Judge Dyer.

George H. Porter, who, under the name of George D. Phillips Jr., imposed upon a number of St. Louisans by posing as a naval hero, and who almost got away with $25,000 worth of shoe machinery, was taken today by the United States Marshal to New Hampshire. He is wanted there for an offense similar to the one he tried to perpetrate here and an order for his removal was issued by Federal Judge Dyer.

He told St. Louisans that he was a son of the president of the George D. Phillips Shoe Machinery Co. of Seattle, Wash. He deposited a draft for $50,000 in the Mercantile Trust Co., drawn on the First National Bank of Seattle, and signed "George D. Phillips Shoe Machinery Co." He "leased" a building at Seventh and Market streets and "purchased" $25,000 worth of shoe machinery. The fact that he had only one hand helped him in his story of having been wounded in a sea fight, but later he admitted to the police that, although he had been dishonorably discharged from the naval service, he had not been wounded and had lost his hand through blood poisoning.

After his arrest, when it had been learned that he was a fraud, Porter told the police that he had "had a lot of fun and several good dinners," but that he had not made a cent here out of his fictitious enterprise.

45 Vandervoort Player-Pianos Are to Be Sold at the Special Price of $498 Each

WITH the opening of our store tomorrow morning we are beginning a most unusual sale of player-pianos. The sale will consist of 45 new Vandervoort Player-pianos. No more. No less. These instruments were contracted for and this sale planned months ago, before piano prices went so high. (This will be told of fully in another advertisement). The players have been arriving direct from the factory for several days and are nearly all here.

Those who take advantage of this sale will get greatly reduced prices; big inducements in the way of easy payments and a number of liberal conditions and privileges which do not go with every-day piano selling. Forty-five persons will go on this excursion. Seldom has one ever had an opportunity to obtain a good, durable player-piano at a lower price; upon easier terms or upon fairer, squarer or more liberal conditions.

In wood, ivory, felt, strings, tone and workmanship Vandervoort Player-pianos are worthy of a place in the finest St. Louis homes down and then the balance is payable at the rate of $12.00 per month—which gives you 36 months' time in which to pay for the Player.

The Vandervoort Player-pianos that go into this sale would grace any home. For downright durability the Vandervoort Player is the equal of any player made. These instruments are not strangers to St. Louis. They have been made and sold for many years. Thousands of them are today in the best homes of this country, where they have been bought at prices averaging a great deal more than we are asking for them. Take the physical piano itself; that is, the woods that go into the case; the ivory that goes into the keys; the felt that goes into the hammers, and the steel wire that goes into the strings, and so on and so on, and you get the same identical materials that you get in the most expensive pianos. They are made for us in one of the largest piano manufacturing plants in the world. Where pianos are built well and economically, and where there is an abundance of capital to procure the best there is to be had, and to "back up" the guarantee—which is as strong as was ever placed upon any musical instrument.

$12.00
Per Month
The initial payment necessary to obtain one of these Player-pianos is $25.00. The twenty-five dollars is deducted from the price, leaving four hundred and seventy-three dollars to be paid at the rate of twelve dollars per month.

The Special plan through which these Vandervoort Player-pianos will be sold is the most economical FOR YOU

Were it possible for 45 persons to walk into our Piano Salons tomorrow morning and each and every one of these persons buy one of these Vandervoort instruments, and each and every one of these persons lay down spot cash—we could cut a big slice off the regular selling price, couldn't we? For it would sell these 45 Players in the shortest length of time without incurring any expense, excepting the cost of this one advertisement.

But such a thing is impossible. The best that can be done is to come as nearly to this condition as possible. And that is just what is being done.

First of all, we have bought direct from manufacturers themselves 45 Vandervoort Players—all of which are of one grade and quality.

We have put up the spot cash, so that these players stand on our floors at as small cost as 45 players of like grade can possibly be produced. Only a house like ours, which has the absolute confidence of the public, could attempt a sale of such big proportions at such a little margin of profit.

It is the purpose of this advertisement (and others to follow) to find 45 persons quickly, who want players in their homes.

This transaction will save piano buyers of St. Louis and vicinity tremendous sums on such items of expense as rent, light, clerical help, insurance, salesmen's salaries, advertising, etc. Selling 45 Players of like high grade would regularly be spread over a period, while, under this plan, the sale of these 45 instruments will be narrowed down to a few weeks, at the longest.

Under this plan, all expenses are concentrated into a brief period. Profits are small on a single sale. Very small. Just as a railroad finds it profitable to run excursions at half the regular fare. Even in the matter of freight and cartage we are able to cut off some expense, and so it is all along the line—wherever under the usual plan of selling it costs a dollar for expenses during this sale it will cost a fraction thereof.

Here are the advantages you secure as a result of this big transaction

First—You get a Vandervoort Player which would regularly sell at a higher price for four hundred and ninety-eight dollars.

Second—Instead of having to pay seventy-five or a hundred dollars as a first payment and twenty or thirty dollars a month as you will in a regular way, during this unusual sale you pay but twenty-five dollars down and then but $12.00 monthly.

Third—You get as strong a guarantee as was ever put on a player-piano; a guarantee made and signed by ourselves, giving you protection for five years that is as safe as a Government bond.

Fourth—You get absolutely free of charge, a beautiful duet bench, and $12.00 worth of music rolls of your own selection.

Fifth—All payments remaining unpaid are voluntarily canceled in event of your death—thus leaving the piano to your family free of all incumbrances.

Sixth—You are given an opportunity to secure a reliable instrument from a house you know to be reliable at an exceedingly low price.

Seventh—Under this plan, tuning for one year, and delivery within 30 miles are included without adding any expense to the purchaser.

How to take advantage of this extraordinary sale

To take advantage of this unusual sale, all you have to do is to send or bring twenty-five dollars, for which we will at once give you a receipt.

This twenty-five dollars is credited to your account, leaving four hundred and seventy-three dollars to be paid.

The plan then allows you thirty-nine months' time in which to pay this amount—at the rate of twelve dollars a month. Or you may make your payments weekly if you prefer.

You can select your Player now, or at any time within the next few days. It will be delivered immediately, or held for later delivery, if you wish. The date of delivery is wholly optional with you.

If not convenient for you to personally select your piano, our Buyer and Manager of our Piano and Victrola Departments will personally make the selection for you under your instructions.

Fagged Out Women Vinol is What You Need

If all the tired, overworked, run-down women in this community could realize how our delicious Vinol, which contains Beef and Cod Liver Peptones, Iron and Manganese Peptones and Glycophosphates supplies the vital elements necessary to enrich the blood and create working strength, we wouldn't be able to supply the demand.

Dukedom, Tenn.
"I live on a farm and keep house for six in my family. I got into a nervous, run-down condition so it seemed as though I would die. A friend advised me to try Vinol. I have been greatly improved by its use and am better and stronger in every way." —Mrs. H. H. Goodwin.

Burdett, N. Y.
"I keep house for my family of three, and raise chickens. I had a nervous breakdown, so I was unable to work. The doctor did not seem to help me, and a cousin asked me to try Vinol. It built me up—I now have a good appetite and am well and strong." —Mrs. Loyal Palmer.

For all run-down, nervous, anemic conditions, weak women, overworked men, feeble old people and delicate children, there is no remedy like Vinol.

EXPECT NO PUSHING OF CASES BEFORE MUNGER

Lawyers Base Belief on Judge's Urging Acquittal of Koenig Under Disloyalty Charge.

Lawyers associated with the cases under the espionage act, pending in the Federal Court here, today expressed the belief that the Government would not press the trial of any more of these cases before Judge Thomas J. Munger of Lincoln, Neb., who is now here for the special purpose of clearing the docket of cases of this class.

Their belief was based on the court's action in directing a jury, yesterday afternoon, to acquit Henry C. Koenig of 3338 Kosciuszka street, brick manufacturer and former member of the Board of Education, who was charged with violating the espionage act by saying, to women Red Cross solicitors, that the Red Cross and the Y. M. C. A. were "a bunch of thieves and grafters."

Instructions to Jury.
Judge Munger, in giving his directions to the jury, condemned Koenig from the standpoint of loyalty and Americanism. "If he said what witnesses quoted him as saying," the Judge declared, "he showed disloyal sentiment, and showed that he was not a good American, but was adhering to the cause of the land of his forefathers. There should be some way to punish such utterances."

However, the Court held that the espionage act did not specifically cover such attacks on the Red Cross and the Y. M. C. A., and hence he granted the motion of Koenig's lawyers for a directed verdict, and the acquittal, at his order, was voted by the jury.

The Government showed that one of the Red Cross solicitors, Mrs. W. P. Grath, was within the age limits for enlistment in the Red Cross as a nurse, and it also showed the semi-official connection of the Red Cross with the Government, as the only nursing agency for the army. Assistant Attorney-General Charles P. Williams for the Government argued that Koenig's remarks might have caused Mrs. Grath to refrain from offering her services as a nurse. The Court held, however, that the evidence had not shown Mrs. Grath to be qualified in any way, except as to age.

Comment of Lawyers.
Lawyers said today that, following the same principle, if Koenig were on trial for remarks made to a man of military age, the Government would have to prove that the man was in all respects qualified for service as a soldier.

The Court also held that, inasmuch as Koenig was charged with making false statements about the Red Cross and the Y. M. C. A., the Government should have introduced formal evidence to show that the organizations were not, as Koenig asserted, run by grafters.

MYSTERY AS TO MAN'S BODY RUN OVER BY A CAR

Inquest Shows He May Have Been Dead Before Wheels Ran Over Him.

A Coroner's jury returned an open verdict at an inquest at Clayton McGuire, 49, of 608 Maple avenue, who was run over by a Midland-Page car at Ogden avenue, St. Louis County, last night. It could not be determined whether McGuire, who was lying across the car tracks, was dead when the car approached or was killed when it struck him.

James Tong, the motorman, testified that he at first thought McGuire's form was that of a dummy. He said he attempted to stop the car, but could not until McGuire had been dragged about 30 feet under the front trucks. Tong said earlier in the day he had removed from the tracks two effigies of the Kaiser, which had been used in the peace celebration.

McGuire was a farmhand. Several hours before the accident he had told friends he was going to a wedding celebration.

AFFIDAVIT NECESSARY TO SEND GIFT PACKAGE TO WAR WORKER

Red Cross Says Personal Application Must Be Made at Main Post-office for Blank.

Officials of the Red Cross today announced that persons desiring to send Christmas packages to individuals serving in the Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., Knights of Columbus or other war organizations overseas, must apply in person at the main postoffice, Eighteenth and Walnut streets, and fill out application blank.

Officials at the postoffice have received many written requests for certificates, but as Government regulations require that the person wishing to send a gift to an active war worker must swear that he or she is the nearest living relative.

Packages sent to individuals under this plan must carry postage from St. Louis to its ultimate destination. Christmas parcels sent to soldiers in the A. E. F., however, need bear postage only to Hoboken, N. J.

Scudder-Gale Contribution.
The Scudder-Gale Grocery Co., Twelfth and Poplar streets, has turned over to the United War Work Campaign $578 as a penalty suggested by the local Federal Food Administration for selling a carload of canned milk to retailers at an excessive profit. Government investigators, it was stated, reported that the overcharge was a mistake and was not due to intentional profiteering.

Salesmen and agents are finding new connections through Post-Dispatch "wants" while readjustments are in progress.

BRITISH TROOPS TOOK ENDING OF THE WAR SOBERLY

After a Time There Was Some Rejoicing in Rest Billets and Here and There Elsewhere Men Sang.

By JOSEPH W. GRIGG, A Special Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch and the New York World.

WITH THE BRITISH ARMY, Nov. 12.—Many neat piles of shells were accumulated Sunday night for the last minutes of the war, "just to give Fritz one to get on with," as a battery sergeant put it. Except in a few places, Fritz was unable to retaliate because his principal supplies had been going rearward so precipitately in recent days that he had no surplus left, such as he hid himself before leaving Tournai. On the occasion he let off a wild burst of indiscriminate shell fire, being unable to carry off his munitions. On the roads leading to the old fighting ground, relief columns of troops went forward Monday morning as if a battle were still raging. The motor transports displayed the allied flags and civilians came out from their houses to shout happy salutations; but Tommy Atkins was taking his pleasure soberly, although he smiled as he marched forward to the music of the brass bands.

For two hours after the declaration of armistice there was little demonstration anywhere. Afterward there was considerable rejoicing among the troops in the rest billets and snatches of chorus were heard along the roadsides. It was not until afternoon that the boys shook off their habitual reticence. A drizzling rain had then set in, but the transport men didn't seem to mind it as they trudged along the roads singing.

Refugees on All Roads. Refugees were on all the roads leading to and from the battle area. For days they had been trekking on foot, with their household effects, headed toward indefinite places of safety. Now the Tommies are helping them over the bad places. Nearly every lorry is piled with women and children, bedding and cooking utensils. The Canadian corps alone has been feeding 500,000 civilians lately, at various times. As soon as possible the French will take over their care.

At 11 o'clock Monday morning a great still came over the whole battle front, which was all the more noticeable because the last shells landed at the Germans had left the mouths of the guns a few seconds before it had been agreed when hostilities should cease. Before the end had come, however, Mons had passed into history as a British victory, for, by the light of the moon Sunday night, the Second Division of Canadians wrested the town from the enemy and, with Gen. Smith-Dorrien's forces, took the fort made famous in the retreating battle in August, 1914.

The last sector which I visited yesterday morning before the end came was that occupied by the Canadians, who are justly proud that before the fighting ceased they had been able to add Mons to the roster of victories for the mother country. The chief of the artillery of the Canadian corps went to one of the forward batteries to fire the last shot, and during the afternoon bands were playing in Mons, which had been left intact by the enemy.

It was the first part of the reconquered territory with chickens, ducks and livestock visible, for the Germans have heretofore availed themselves of the fowls, cattle and horses.

It was a stout fight in the moonlight before the town was taken, as the enemy had left behind what he believed to be a volunteer force to hold on as long as possible in order to give the retreating troops time to widen the distance between them and the on-pressing British. Before the Canadians halted at 11 o'clock that night they had gone considerably beyond Mons.

Canadians Welcomed to Mons. The population of Mons, augmented by hundreds of civilians from nearby places, joined in the mighty outburst of enthusiasm when the Canadian divisional commander handed over the town to the people. Its streets were draped with flags and then came the march of the victors headed by the pipers. At the conclusion of the ceremonies three cheers were given for King Albert from soldiers and civilians alike. Some time before the armistice hour there was no sound of firing in the immediate vicinity, and airplanes hovering over the German lines were not fired upon. The hated Germans had disappeared in the night hours. During the afternoon scores of cars bearing army officials went to visit this famous town, and all day the populace joyously welcomed every arrival or mingled with the troops in the streets. The dull day, with its cold drizzle, had no effect upon the enthusiasm.

Everyone has felt for the past few days that the enemy would sign the armistice, but thought of no relaxation. Sunday night the bombing planes carried out the last "strafing" expedition over the German lines, and at more than one airdrome there was the feeling that the bombing hour would not arrive before the armistice was signed, thus preventing the operations, but the squadrons finally flew away.

HOUSE AND LLOYD GEORGE IN EXCHANGE OF FELICITATIONS

U. S. Special Representative Congratulates British Premier,
Who Expresses Appreciation.

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, Nov. 12.—Edward M.

splendid victory than you."

To this the Prime Minister replied:
"Many thanks for your generous telegram. Nothing contributed more to the victory than the prompt response of the President to the appeal I made to him for American help in those critical days."

LIEUT. DUNCKER WAS KILLED ON OCT. 17

Letter to Father From Brother
Officer Tells of Fatality—
Others in Casualty List.

First Lieutenant Charles H. Duncker Jr., 25 years old, of the 340th Field Artillery, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Duncker of Brentmoor Park, was killed by a German shell on the night of Oct. 17, according to a letter written to his father by a brother officer. The father is president of the Trorlicht-Duncker Carpet Co., Twelfth and Locust streets.

The letter said that the shell struck the headquarters of the battery, on the field of battle, about 10 p. m. Lieut. Duncker, it was stated, was buried with full military honors, the officers of his regiment attending.

Lieut. Duncker obtained his commission at Camp Funston, having volunteered when the United States entered the war. Last May, before his departure for France, he was married to Miss Ada Nicholson of 6111 Pershing avenue, daughter of James Nicholson.

Sergeant John Clifford Kuntz, 21, of K Company, 138th (St. Louis) Infantry, was killed in action Sept. 27, the second day of the Argonne battle, according to an official notification received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Kuntz of 4640 Labadie avenue. He was a former employee of the Harris-Polk Hat Co. and served with the First Regiment on the Mexican border in 1916. Unofficial reports of his death have been circulated for two weeks past.

Sergeant Kuntz's brother, Charles J. Kuntz, was a member of the navy, and was killed by an explosion on the battleship Bennington in 1905. A surviving brother, Clyde Kuntz, is a Second Lieutenant in the Thirtieth Balloon Corps. The elder Kuntz is a native of Alsace.

Violinist Killed in Action.

Harry N. Potter, G Company, 138th Infantry, was killed in action by shell fire in the Argonne Forest, on Sept. 28, according to word that has come from his comrades to his parents, Dr. and Mrs. N. Potter, Grand avenue and Wyoming street. He was a violinist and a favorite in his company because he carried his violin into the trenches and lighted the hours of his comrades. The letter received from him was dated Aug. 15, in which he said that his regiment was in the front line and that he was well. "I still have my violin," he wrote. "I play quite often and carry it to the front-line trenches."

George Tapscott, 22, of C Company, 138th, has been named in the letters of three comrades as having been killed in the Argonne battle. No official notice has reached either his wife, Mrs. Mae Tapscott of 4201 North Eleventh street, or his mother, Mrs. E. Fred Hawley of 819 Bremen avenue, but both have been informed of the reports by the recipients of the letters.

Tapscott was a Sergeant when the regiment went overseas, but was placed in motor cycle work, and when he suffered from the physical strain of cycle riding was placed at division headquarters as a mess Sergeant. He was said in letters received lately, that he had obtained permission to go back to C Company, apparently as a private, because he "felt like a slacker, so far from the front." He served with the First Regiment on the Mexican border in 1916.

East St. Louis Corporal Killed.

Corp. Clyde F. Pendleton, 24, of B Company, 138th, was killed in action according to an official notification received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Pendleton of 1309 Baugh avenue, East St. Louis. He had been variously reported, in letters written by comrades to their relatives, as having been wounded and as having been killed. He was a graduate of the East St. Louis High School, and enlisted in the Fifth Missouri in May, 1917. He was previously employed by the British Government in connection with its purchase of horses at the National Stockyards. His father is a stock dealer, and the family is well known on the East Side.

Sergeant Paul Bethard, 28, of G Company, 331st Infantry, killed in action Oct. 4, was an orphan, and for four years before his induction into the service last May, was employed as a barber by George W. Pollock, 214 St. Clair avenue, East St. Louis. Pollock said today that he would make every endeavor to have the body brought back and interred in the National Cemetery at Jefferson Barracks.

John Breitenbach Jr., 27 years old, of 606 Richard street, Belleville, a private in M Company, 119th Infantry, was killed in action Oct. 10, according to a telegram from the War Department received by his father last night. He was drafted last winter and had been overseas several months.

Had Been in Italian Army.

Giovanni Carcano, 31, of F Company, 304th Infantry, killed in action Oct. 5, listed today with the St. Louis address of his brother, Francisco Carcano of 712 Carr street. Carcano, however, was a resident of Pittsburgh, and was drafted there last June. He was in the Italian army three years before coming to the United States.

Louis Galloway, 23, a negro, son of Mrs. Phoebe Galloway of Wentzville, St. Charles County, and a member of an infantry regiment, died in France Oct. 19 from pneumonia. On the same day that the mother received this announcement, she received word that her son, William, 25, had been killed in action. She did not know the number of either son's regiment. A third son is in Camp Funston. Their father, Fred Galloway, died four months ago. Corp. Oliver B. Adams of M Company, 138th, was wounded Sept. 26, he has written to his mother, Mrs. Ida B. Adams of 6342 Isabella avenue, and was sent to a base hospital. He has two brothers in the service.

POLICE ITEMS

TWO MEN WHO ROBBED JOHN J. Haynes, 3806 Delmar boulevard, at North St. and Franklin avenue at 1 p. m. today engaged in a running pistol fight with policemen who pursued them for several blocks. Six shots were fired by the policemen and as many returned by the robbers. Haynes lost $18. His cries for help while being robbed had attracted the police.

MRS. HARRY LYON, 6122 WASHINGTON boulevard, was robbed of a purse containing $6 taken from a pocket of her coat when on an office street car last night. Miss Alpha M. Kellogg, 1634 Texas avenue, was robbed of her purse, containing $2.15, when waiting for a street car at Sixth street and Washington avenue.

ROBBERIES WHO TOOK ADVANTAGE

MISCELLANEOUS

WIRE ROPES TIED BEHIND A street car and a wagon by peace celebrators Monday resulted in injury to two persons on the streets yesterday.

DETECTIVE SEROT, THOMAS SHELTER saved a boy about 15 years old from serious injury when he picked him up in his arms and ran along behind a wagon for a block at High street and Franklin avenue after the boy's shoes had become tangled in a wire trailing behind the wagon. The boy was being dragged over the streets unheeded by the driver when SHELTER sought to save him. After running a block trying to attract the attention of the driver SHELTER gave it up, and with a jerk tore the wire loose.

MISS JOSIE TUCKER, 3218 DODIER street, crossing Twentieth street and Grand avenue behind a Bellefontaine car, was thrown by a wire left trailing from the bumper of the car. She was dragged 15 feet before the car was stopped. Her left ankle was sprained.

FRED LAKE, 57 YEARS OLD, 1506 South Seventh street, was seriously injured last night when thrown from a southbound Broadway car crowded to the steps in violation of the Health Department quarantine. He said the car was so jammed with passengers it was impossible for the conductor to close the rear door. He was one of those crowded in the rear, he said. As the car passed Convent street, he said, two men made a rush to board the step and in the crush he was pushed off into the street.

MRS. MELVINA SCHUTTENBERG, 21 years old, stopping at the Burlington Hotel, Twentieth and Market streets, was taken to the city hospital last night after she had swallowed three mercury tablets which she mistook in the dark for a headache remedy. Her condition is serious.

MISS SYLVIA HULLIVERSON, 18 YEARS old, of 2901 South Broadway, was arrested charged with careless driving last night after an automobile she was driving had wrecked a motor cycle ridden by Scott L. Kelling, 18, 5014 Paço boulevard, at 65th North Broadway. The machines were going in opposite directions when they collided. Kelling was arrested also. He was cut and bruised.

Mercantile Club Election Friday.

Members of the Mercantile Club, which was placed under a receivership last Thursday, at a reorganization meeting yesterday deferred action on the resignation of the club's officers and board of directors, submitted by President Bihlmeier. A meeting for the election of a new board of directors and officers will be held at noon Friday.

PAIGE

"The Most Beautiful Car in America"

Now for Peace

"LET'S GO!"

A glorious and enduring Peace! And we and our Allies have won it with our courage, our brains and our brawn.

Now let us turn from War to the Work and Responsibilities of Peace. We Americans have a gigantic task before us. It is our job to clear away the wreckage of War, to rebuild and reorganize half the World.

Let's start this instant to do it—start with the calm confidence, the ingenuity, the thoroughness, the resistless energy with which we started to Win the War.

It was the great privilege of the Paige to stand shoulder to shoulder with scores of other great American Companies and fight, not in trench and turret, but beside lathe and drill-press.

In this Hour of Fulfillment we wish to speak a word of appreciation to those who have worked whole-heartedly with us, who have expressed their own red-blooded Americanism in a way to make our course and accomplishment possible.

We all had many difficult and weighty problems to solve. And yet, we realize, these War readjustments of business brought much graver uncertainty and greater privations to the 2,000 Paige Dealers throughout the world than they did to us. They were forced to make heroic sacrifices in order to save their undertakings, and their investments.

They responded magnificently. We shall remember those Dealers and the way they met and passed the Test.

Our service with the Colors has brought us a recompense, which lies, not only in the consciousness of having given our best to Uncle Sam and Victory, but actually, in the invaluable experience we have secured in meeting and solving the unprecedented problems which War forced upon the resourceful men, the strong men, the indomitable men of American Industry.

Our engineers crowded into the War Period years of priceless experience, years of creative work. We have learned new methods of manufacture, new standards of precision, new tests of quality.

We have built new factories, added vastly to our equipment, expanded our facilities tremendously. We were given by the War and War Work new Visions of the need of motor cars and motor trucks. And now that Peace has come and the Markets of the World are re-opened to us—we are prepared.

Paige Owners, Paige Dealers, Paige Patrons throughout the World, whose support and patience so long sustained us, will now find a Paige Company amazingly expanded in ideal and physical asset, in vision and factory equipment—a Paige Company, not merely of Detroit, U. S. A.—but a Paige Company of the World.

GERMAN TROOPS IN FRONT OF BRITISH RACED FOR FRONTIER

Victorious Allies in Belgium, Resting on Arms When Armistice Began, Had Fireworks at Night.

WITH THE BRITISH ARMY IN FRANCE AND BELGIUM, Monday, Nov. 11, 8 p. m.—All day long the rear-guard troops of the shattered and defeated German armies opposite the British front have been racing for their own border as though their lives depended on reaching their own land by nightfall.

Behind them the victorious allied troops rested on their arms after the cessation of hostilities at 11 o'clock in the morning. Some of them were disconsolate because they were unable to pursue the enemy further, but all were glad for a chance to catch their breath after the wearying chase of recent days.

Tonight the cloud-laden skies along the whole front were flaring and blinking with the varied lights sent up by Tommy Atkins as a peace greeting to his distant comrades and a message of triumph to the broken graycoats to the east.

Statute Revision Committee.

JEFFERSON CITY, Nov. 13.—Gov. Gardner yesterday appointed members of a Statute Revision Committee which will prepare bills on statute revision for the Legislature in January. The members are Senators A. E. L. Gardner of Clayton, R. S. McClintock of Monroe City, Von Mayes of Harts, Representatives Frank C. Wilkerson of Kansas City, D. F. Warren of Trenton and Frank H. Farris of Rolla.

New Rumanian Regime Reported to Have Declared War on Tenthons.

By The Associated Press.

PARIS, Tuesday, Nov. 12 (Havas).—A dispatch to the Frankfort Gazette from Budapest says the new Rumanian Government has declared war on Germany.

Dr. Bittling will hold a service in the Second Baptist Church, this Wednesday evening, 8 o'clock, in celebration of the great victory. The public is cordially invited.

Lose Your Fat, Keep Your Health

Superfluous flesh is not healthy, neither is it healthy to diet or exercise too much for its removal. The simplest method known for reducing the overfat body two, three or four pounds a week is the Marmola Method, tried and endorsed by thousands. Marmola Prescription Tablets, containing exact doses of the famous prescription, are sold by druggists at 75 cents for a large case, or if you prefer you can obtain them by sending direct to the Marmola Company, 804 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich. They are harmless and leave no wrinkles or fat-bags. They are popular because effective and convenient.—ADV.

During Illness and Convalescence

VITALITY and Body Resistance must be supported and maintained. Nourishment is necessary, and must be of a nature that is easily and completely digested, without producing added strain upon the impaired digestive organs.

BORDEN'S MALTED MILK is generally prescribed and is especially valuable in the feeding of Influenza and its convalescence, as well as the convalescence of pneumonia, the dreaded sequel, when vitality must be maintained at all hazards.

Borden's Malted Milk is safe and reliable; made from pure, rich cow's milk, and blended by a scientific process with malted grains, it affords just the kind of food that is desired at this time to sustain and rebuild strength and body tissue, and at the same time soothes and quiets the tired nerves.

When your doctor orders Malted Milk insist on BORDEN'S MALTED MILK. Sold in square packages only at all drug stores Official Count Shows O'Brien Led Riley by 337 in Fourth District.

William M. Riley, negro politician, of 925A North Jefferson avenue, will not sit in the State Legislature as representative from the Fourth St. Louis District. Unofficial returns had seemed to indicate his election, but the official count completed yesterday showed that he was beaten by 337 votes, this being the plurality of James T. O'Brien, who received the highest number of votes on the Democratic ticket. Riley received 8284 and O'Brien 8621.

Three representatives were to be elected from the district. Frank O. Bittner and Edward G. Davidson were the Republicans elected. O'Brien will be the only St. Louis Democrat in the next legislature.

The official count of the Third and Fourth Legislative Districts and on Justices of the Peace and Constables is as follows:

Third Legislative District—Emory W. Chase (Dem.), 5181; John P. Connor (Dem.), 5287; John J. Moroney (Dem.), 5176; Charles P. Comer (Rep.), 5510; Julius A. Razovsky (Rep.), 5399; Hugh K. Wagner (Rep.), 5516.

Fourth Legislative District—Edward J. Hogan (Dem.), 8254; Thomas J. McNamara (Dem.), 8522; James T. O'Brien (Dem.), 8621; Frank O. Bittner (Rep.), 9845; Edward G. Davidson (Rep.), 9779; William M. Riley (Rep.), 8284.

Justice of the Peace.

First District—John E. Gaskill (Dem.), 6245; H. J. Pfeiffer (Rep.), 14,421.

Second District—William Kaiser (Dem.), 3336; Henry Pfeiffer (Rep.), 5342.

Third District—Edward E. Rice (Dem.), 3974; R. E. Moore (Rep.), 3766.

Fourth District (two to be elected)—Frank J. Costello (Dem.), 1821; A. A. Lancaster (Dem.), 1804; Harry McChesney (Rep.), 3718; Homer G. Phillips (Ind.), 664.

Fifth District—Andrew Gazzolo (Dem.), 3064; Charles S. Thompson (Dem.), 2990; William J. Blesse (Rep.), 4063; Gabriel Roth (Dem.), 3016.

SCHOOL PLAYGROUND OFFERED
G. A. Scruggs Donates Property for the Scruggs School.

A tract of land for a playground for the Richard M. Scruggs School, now nearing completion at 4615 South Grand avenue, was offered to the Board of Education last night by G. A. Scruggs, 3617 Olive street, a brother of the late Richard M. Scruggs, after whom the school has been named.

The tract has been secured by Scruggs at a cost of $7500 and is donated to the School Board on condition that the board purchase a small adjoining tract in the same block. In addition to the land, Scruggs offered to donate $2500 to have the tract graded and landscaped. The offer was accepted by a rising vote.

BIG EAST ST. LOUIS PARADE
East St. Louis will formally celebrate the return of peace with a parade tonight. If present plans carry, it will be the longest parade ever held in the city. Those participating will assemble on Main street, south of the city hall, at 7:15 o'clock.

Among those who will march will be soldiers, civilian officials, members of the Chamber of Commerce, neighborhood improvement associations, churches, lodges, schools, factory forces, women's clubs and Boy Scouts. There will be 33 units in the parade. Clark Nixon will be grand marshal. The route will lead as far north as Summit avenue, east to Twentieth street and south to Trendley avenue.

I know that my retirement will make no difference in its cardinal principles, that it will always fight for progress and reform, never tolerate injustice or corruption, always fight for the rights of all parties, never be long to any party, always oppose privileged classes and public plunderers, never lack sympathy with the poor, always remain devoted to the public welfare, never be satisfied with merely printing news, always be drastically independent, never be afraid to attack wrong, whether by predatory plutocracy or predatory poverty.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

Victims of Fear.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.
Thanks for your editorial in Saturday's Post-Dispatch on "Science and the influenza." One word, "bedeviled," which possibly escaped the editorial typewriter in a moment of righteous indignation, was worth a year's subscription to me. In the disagreements arising in Health Department circles, there is an inkling that leaders of medical thought are preparing to yield ground on the mooted microbe question. There are people on earth who look to see the "kerm" as the theoretical cause of so much of humanity's troubles, wend its certain way to that scrap-heap of medical theories which has grown steadily larger from the beginning of medical history. Already we are hearing less of fumigation, once considered very necessary for our protection. It appears that the bacillus is now known to be a fragile creature, weakened possibly by carrying around its long and unpronounceable name; at any rate not nearly robust enough to linger in a sickroom untroubled for days and weeks, clinging to the wall paper, awaiting the opportunity to pounce on a new victim. It is now said authoritatively that it would die of exposure to a few seconds; and so, in some enlightened quarters, it is no longer regarded as absolutely necessary to fill the flat with poison gas while the family retires to the cellar or other convenient dugout. I must again express my admiration for that word "bedeviled." It opens up so much. In all seriousness, I would record the conviction that the devil called fear is far more deadly than any micro-organism. It is at the seat and the well of disease; the epidemic is largely an epidemic of fear.

Is there not a lesson to be learned from that ancient dialogue:
"Said death to the plague: 'I hear you killed a thousand men in Bagdad.'
"Oh, no," said the plague; "I killed one man, fear killed the rest."

Shall all Christendom abase itself in helpless error before a creature too small to be seen by the microscope when the scriptures say to him "that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High." "There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling. Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet." Daniel in the lion's den and Paul when the viper fastened on his hand, proved the power of the psalmist to be literally true and provable. The Master Christian is recorded as saying to his followers: "Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy; and nothing shall by any means hurt you." The keynote of the Scriptures is: "Be not afraid."

PROGRESS.

Get Rid of "Etzel."

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.
I am among the many residents of Etzel avenue who is interested in the renaming of our street. I would like to make a suggestion why I think Fleming avenue would be most appropriate of all. "Etzel" as he was known to his friends, was well known on Etzel avenue, as he was on his own street, only a couple of blocks from my own home. He was raised in this neighborhood, saw what greater honor could be shown our street than to name for him the street with which he was so familiar. I would be willing to donate my time toward having the residents of this street sign a petition in favor of Fleming avenue. Let there be no further delay in this matter, but have this street and others with "Hun-nish" names immediately changed.

(MISS) A. R. LA FALLIS.

Inhuman Treatment of Calves.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.
Is there anyone in St. Louis who is interested in the following: While walking on the streets, one cold, windy day, I saw calves tied out in front of a commission house. One was a little Jersey. I asked the man who owned it as to its sex. The calf was lying down on the cold pavement and to get it on its feet the fellow rolled its tail under its foot on the sidewalk. I questioned to know whether these calves were fed or watered. He answered, "Why, no; we never bother with them—we sell them as soon as we can." These four calves stood there until nightfall and were put away for the night—where, I don't know.

I remonstrated about the heifers being sold as milk is so high and scarce. I think this matter should be taken up and this cruelty stopped. Anyone who is observing could see just what I saw, and someone should see that dumb animals should have a drink of warm water; at least young, tender calves, which have been raised on the milk from cows until veal age, and then to have them abused by rough handling to me seems very inhuman.

FERGUSON.

For a St. Mihiel Avenue.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.
While on the subject of changing the names of German streets, why not change Bremen avenue. I suggest that it be changed to St. Mihiel. Our St. Louis boys also participating in that, why do not we, would prove to them that we are with them, heart and soul.

L. P.

THE EIGHT-BILLION TAX BILL.

The end of the war finds the $8,000,000,000 tax bill still pending in Congress. The suggestion that it be modified is natural and logical. Secretary McAdoo opposes any reduction in its schedules. Enormous expenditures must still be met, he says, and its principle of taking for public use the greater part of war profits is as sound now as before the armistice. But the bill lays burdensome taxes on hundreds of thousands who not only received no financial benefit from the war, but actually suffered losses. The same reasons that made the excess profits tax just, as applied to war contractors, made obvious its injustice as applied to salaried men whose pay was ever shrinking in purchasing power.

Some considerations to which Congress may properly give weight in deciding on the final provisions of the bill are these: That the interest on our war debts and a new scale of national expenditure which must be decreased for a long time will impose heavy taxation on business during many years of the future; that the taxation of the agencies of production, transportation and distribution at the very highest rates they can bear, will force the consumer to continue to pay onerous prices for necessities at a time when uncertainty will affect employment conditions and other means by which the plain people gain a livelihood; that the Government can render the best service by drastically reducing outgo rather than by enlarging income.

The bill, framed in the expectation that the war would last during a part or perhaps the whole of 1919, proposed to take as much in one year from the people as was formerly taken in 10 years in time of peace. To return to the old basis of course is impossible. But with the certainty of peace substituted for the expectation of war, will it not be sufficient to take only as much as was formerly taken in six or eight years, rather than 10?

Revenue needs in peace cannot possibly be as great as if we were compelled during coming months to meet the demands of war. If the taxes are not too high for a peace basis then the bill as it passed the House was too low for a war basis.

The heaven worked in Germany, and the war lords lost everything at the 'eleventh hour on the 'eleventh day of the 'eleventh month.

SHIFTING FROM WAR TO PEACE.

The first step in the shift from war to peace is the rescinding of the call for the November draft. No more men will be drafted or recruited for the army and navy.

The problem of shifting industry from war work to peace work and of demobilizing our armies and returning the men to peace pursuits is the greatest with which we have to deal.

The 2,200,000 American soldiers in Europe, many of whom have not had active service, are sufficient to handle all emergencies that may come in the peace settlement, unless wholly unforeseen contingencies arise. After the peace conference it is probable that we can begin returning men at once to this country. Employment must be found for these men and all those released from duty at home. But the increase of activities connected with peace should at least keep step with the decrease of activities connected with war. There is certain to be a tremendous demand for raw materials and manufactured products through reconstruction work in Europe and to refill the supply of goods, required by the people, which has been reduced by war work.

The readjustment of vast industries and masses of men is not easy. It requires careful planning, but we shall probably be astonished at the rapidity with which the conclusion will be reached. The success with which we met the problems of war is a guarantee that we shall not fail in meeting the problems of peace. There is no occasion for panic. Confidence and practical judgment are needed for the transition.

A red flag's effect on an autocrat seems to be diametrically opposite to its effect on a bull.

MR. WHITMAN'S THIRD TERM BUG.

Gov. Whitman of New York demands a scrutiny of the votes cast in the election resulting in his defeat. To throw doubt on the accuracy of the returns was about the only thing left to him. His is still another name to be added to the already long list of victims to the gnawing of the fatal third-term ambition.

With the tradition of his popular strength, as shown in two previous contests, he might have been a possibility for the Republican presidential nomination in 1920. But in subjecting himself unnecessarily to a third test he eliminated himself. The next G. O. P. convention will look farther and probably fare no worse.

Some of those boys in the last call weren't in the draft long enough to catch cold.

PROGRESSIVES CONTROL THE SENATE.

If Mr. Newberry is permitted to retain his seat, the Republicans will have two majority in the Senate. That, however, does not mean control by the old Republicanism we have known in the past. The balance of power will be in the hands of such men as Capper of Kansas, H. Johnson, Norris, Poindexter, Cummins and others, not to speak of La Follette. These men, with the votes of progressive Democrats, will determine future decisions from the standpoint of public interest and in accordance with the mature desire of popular opinion. Senators of the Lodge, Penrose kind and Democrats essentially of almost the same standard stripe, might attempt a combination, but success is doubtful.

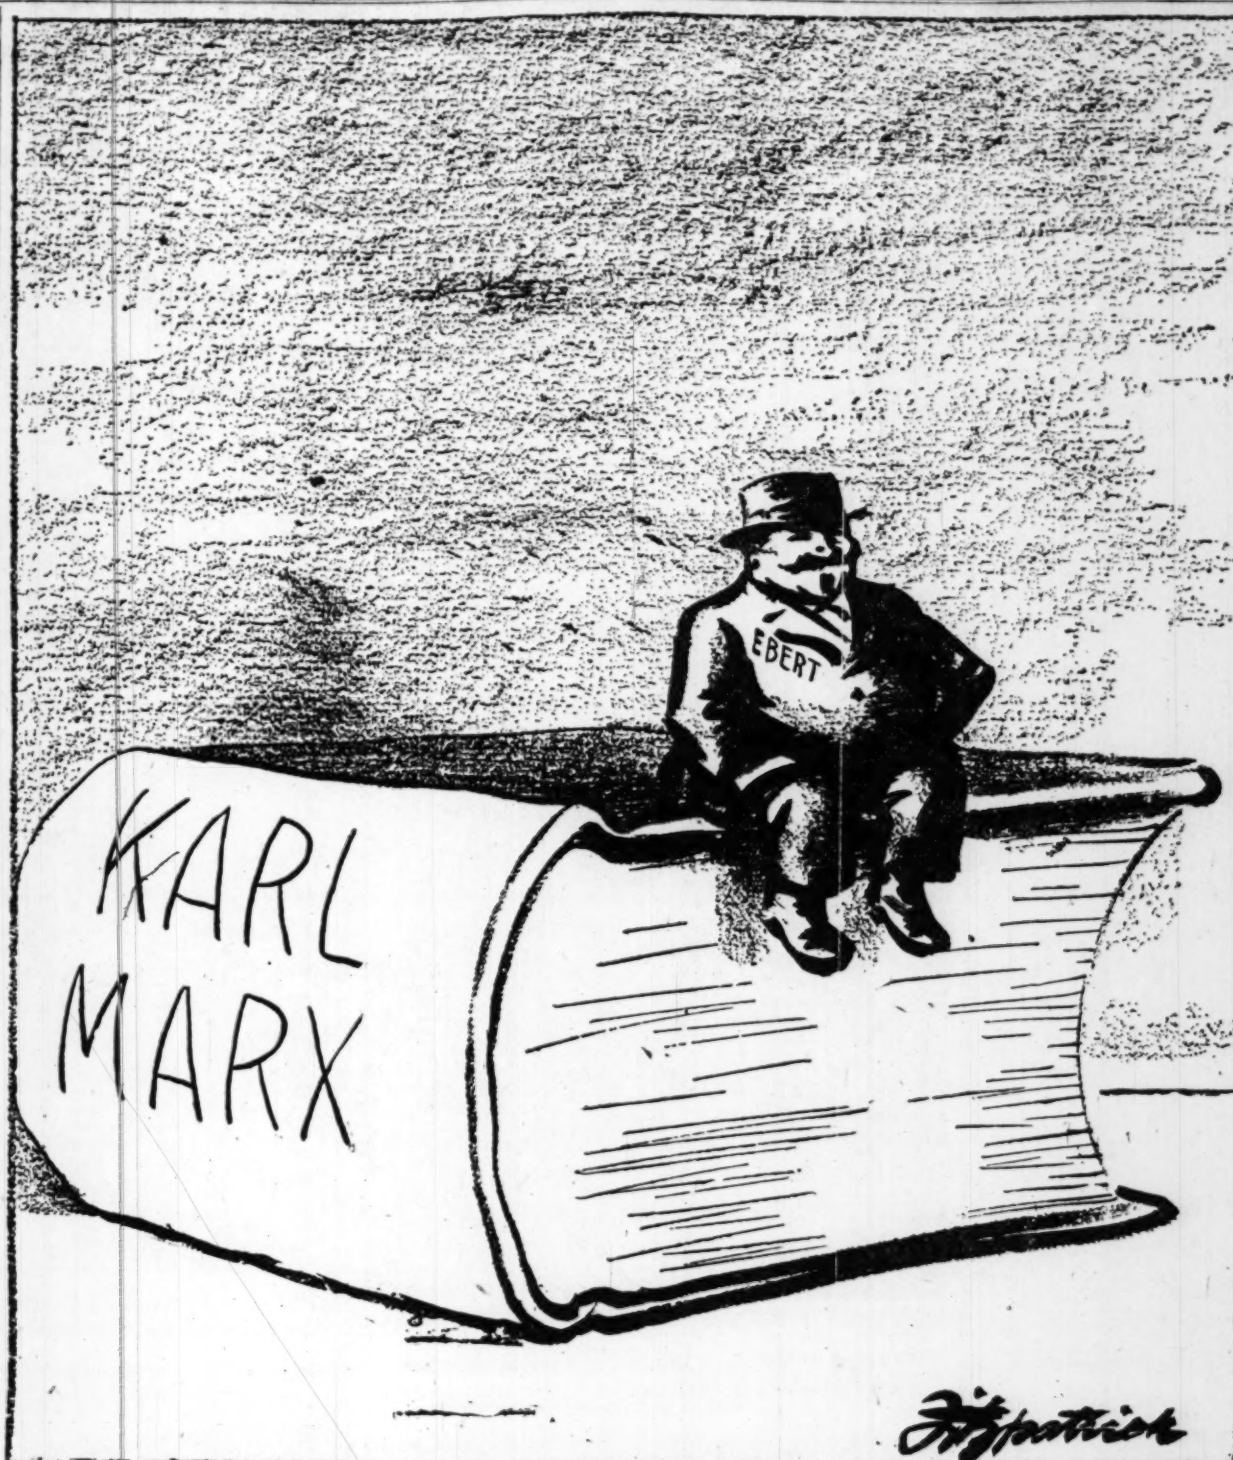

Intelligent, progressive thought now has prevailing force in the country and is coming all the time to exert a larger control in politics and public affairs.

We've packed up our troubles in our old kit bag, and we smile, smile, smile.

CHANCELLOR EBERT'S SMILE.

The picture of Frederick Ebert, Germany's Socialist Chancellor, in Tuesday's Post-Dispatch, shows him broadly smiling. He is evidently in a good humor, and in spite of his double chin has an appearance of strength and ability. The contrast between this new Socialist national executive and Lenin or Trotsky is striking and may be significant. The Russians are grim and bony. They probably have no sense of humor.

With the all-powerful Socialist party back of him Chancellor Ebert might become as great a tyrant as Lenin, but his appearance is against it. Let us hope that his looks do not belie him.

YIDDISHERS FOUGHT BRAVELY.

From The New York Globe.
G LORIOUS is the story the censor has allowed to come through concerning a battalion of the Seventy-seventh Division—a Yaphank division, an East Side division, and to be even more explicit, a Yiddish division.

For four days it was cut off and surrounded in the sombre thickets of the Argonne. When enveloped all the accepted rules of the war game required capitulation. A captured American prisoner, blindfolded so he could not observe, was sent from German headquarters across the American lines. A note told the trapped battalion of the plight it was in—a condition of which it was sadly aware. Good treatment was promised if resistance ceased and extinction threatened if it continued. The reply was an instant negative. The division was a democratic one. Maj. Whittlesey read the message to the men, and they shouted their rejection so loudly that the Germans thought the Americans must be welcoming supporting reinforcements.

For bullets the battalion, with machine gun bullets shaving the ground, crouched behind their shallow trenches. The emergency rations were quickly consumed, and the only food at hand was oak leaves and acorns. The bravery was equal to that at the Alamo, and happily with happier results. The Germans, taught caution by the sting of rifle fire and afraid of the bayonets, did not venture on close attack. The Americans, they said, would grow tired of their foolishness and give up. But after 96 hours relief came and the danger was over.

If it had been said a year ago that the rather undersized tailors, factory workers, pushcart men, clerks, etc., then crowding the East Side's streets would be capable of such a feat smites of incredulity would have spread over many countenances. The Yiddishers fight like wild-cats? Nonsense! It was not in them. But they did. Belittlers will please pass out by all exits. Democracy is not interested in developing power men, but in creating power within them. In less than a generation the Russian Jew has got out of his soul the consequences of centuries of tyranny and oppression. He went into the melting pot with many fears clouding his spirit; he emerges a full grown man, who looks with level and unloving eyes at the arrogant Prussian. No more satisfying proof of the essential soundness of American political and social institutions was ever given than is furnished by the behavior of the East Side battalion. America makes men. Talk of the quest of the old alchemists for the secret of the transmutation of base metals into gold! By a clever alchemy America transmutes blighted raw material into men. Herein is our true glory, and to save the foundations of this glory men of every known race and accent are on the battle line of liberty on the frontiers of freedom.

THE HEALER.

THE kiss of God
Is already upon the wounds
Of the land. In manifold
Signs He hath declared it.

Lo, the grass roots stir.
The dead hearts leap once more
With hope. The dead eyes
Light once more with hope.
The listless hands, made heavy
With sorrow, are flung forth
Rejoicing. Dull voices rise
In jubilant praise. He who Hath given heavily, flingeth
His heart after the gift.
He who hath suffered sorely Smileth upon the suffering.
He who hath hoped righteously
Hath seen its fulfillment.

A stirring unto new life
Of the sorrow-aged. While
The weeping weep, new pipes
Are upon the hills!
While the pipes sound,
Old weeping dieth and new Weeping dieth. He is before man,
Naked. Even as He walked
Amid the hosts with the white moon
As His halo, even so,
He tarrieth with man's wounds.

PATIENCE WORTH.

It will probably be a great surprise to China to learn that she is not considered to have done all she might have done as one of the allies. China has her severe limitations, of which she is quite conscious. Without soldiers, she sent workmen, the number of whom on the west front was reported recently to be a quarter of a million. One feels like saying that the war has not involved anything that China has. China is an idea—an idea against which Col. Roosevelt warned us when he said we were in a fair way to becoming Chinalized. What is the idea? We are afraid no one knows. Whatever it is, it has preserved China intact through the centuries. It is said of China that you cannot invade her. You can merely thrust into her, to see her close the wound as water rushes into a hole behind a pole withdrawn from a pool. Maybe the allies have not appreciated China's part in the war. Somebody has said that it has been a war of ideas, and there is the Chinese idea.

German efficiency persisted to the end. The Kaiser knew exactly where he was going in case the world came down about his ears, and he got there just ahead of a lot of revolutionary bullets.

Germany did not lose much time after she got rid of her autocracy. She had pretty nearly everything but the single tax before the former Kaiser got over the Dutch border.

A fat man, one Friedrich Ebert, is trying to save the situation in Germany. Everybody else's nerves have gone to pieces.

Mr. Wilson has freed Europe. Let us make no mistake about it, either: Europe will build him a monument that we shall be able to see across the Atlantic.

If the Kaiser had that place in the sun he could make mighty fine use of it right now.

Think of it—the Armenians are to have a republic! It is the political millennium.

Notice is heretofore given that the partnership heretofore existing between the undersigned and the Al-mighty has this day been dissolved. Business in future will be conducted by God alone.

Done under my hand and seal this 11th day of November, 1918.

WILLIAM HOENZELER.

The New Republic thinks the espionage law caused the Democratic defeat of last week, and gets its guess in close on the heels of that of Brother Post, who attributes the loss of Congress to Claude Kitchin and the new postal zone law. Col. Roosevelt says the Republicans won because the people of this country insist upon an unconditional German surrender. Mr. Antwine traced the Republican gains to widespread fear upon the part of property that the Democrats would make still further concessions to labor. Socrates thinks the Democrats lost because the country is at heart pacifist and could not be judged by the vote of Wilson two years ago, when there was a chance that he might keep us out of the European war as he had kept us out of war with Mexico. The matter will not be decided until all our two-story thinkers have their guesses in. Don't let us push you. Think hard and file at your convenience. No attention will be paid to the usual Republican theory that the election went as it did because the Republicans are a superior set of folk. The superior-set-of-folk theory has just blown up in Europe, and we don't intend letting it gain a foothold here. Anyway, the Democrats are now wearing two galluses and have just won a heluva big war for us.

In the Land Where the Dead Men Dwell.
(The following poem was written by Lieut. John D. Cosgrove, killed in action, before he left for France.)

I WANDERED among the graves one day.
In the land where the dead men dwell;
And sorrow seemed hundreds of loquues away.

From the heart of that quiet dell,
I heard no moan, and I heard no sigh,
And no one rose with complaining cry.

But all slept under a peaceful sky
In the land where the dead men dwell.

The roses red were there in bloom
In the land where the dead men dwell;
And the lilies white in the twilight gloom.

Stood guard as the shadows fell.
The violets there in the waning day
Knelt down by the hearts of the dead to pray.

And the wind passed by with a word
to say,
I: the land where the dead men dwell.

I saw no sin and I saw no strife
In the land where the dead men dwell;
And no one walked at the woe of life.

At rest in their narrow cell.
Then why should one ever come to weep
In the land where the dead men dwell?

Prospects Seem Slight for Completion of Peace Treaty Before 1920, Says Simonds

Present Task Declared Far More Difficult and Vast Than Readjustment Following Napoleonic Wars of Last Century.

By FRANK H. SIMONDS,
Military Expert of Post-Dispatch,
Author, Etc.
(Copyright, 1918, New York Tribune, Inc.)

The actual signing of the armistice opens the way to that peace congress of which the world has been talking for the past four years. In that period there has been a growing appreciation of the fact that a general settlement cannot be in its magnitude to that of Vienna in 1815, was inevitable when at last the time came to liquidate the present struggle.

What has never been properly perceived in this country is the magnitude of the task and the obstacles which make it almost inevitable that many months will elapse before the signatures are written under the definitive document, the reasons why a settlement even within the limits of next year are slight in the extreme.

After the first abdication of Napoleon the victorious allies met in Vienna in November to reconstruct Europe. They were still in session when Napoleon returned from Elba in the following March and they lingered until June 9 before they signed the final treaty. Nor would this settlement have come had it not been because of the pressure of events. It was Napoleon who in reality made any agreement possible at Vienna, by restoring unity of purpose to his enemies, who were beginning to be separated by conflicting ambitions.

What Happened in 1814.
Thus in the case of the last general settlement in Europe much more than a year divides the actual ending of the hostilities from the signing of the final settlement. In the interim there has been signed a treaty between France and her enemies, the Treaty of Paris, executed after Napoleon's first abdication, but a second Treaty of Paris, following the second abdication, was not signed until Nov. 20. Thus the settlement hung fire over all the period from April 7, 1814, to Nov. 20, 1815.

In the present case we have to face certain conditions which recall those of 1814-15. First of all it is necessary to find a German Government with which to negotiate. In 1814 this was supplied by the return of Louis XVIII. Thanks to the aid of his brother sovereigns, Louis was able to take over French administration with relatively small difficulty, both in 1814 and again in 1815. The bulk of the government was not destroyed, there was merely a change in the sovereign, the executive.

But in the case of Germany we have something approaching a genuine revolution already in progress. It is good reason to believe that the disorder may extend in the following weeks. In any event no government can be more than provisional, until there has been a German election, a submission to the new order to the people.

With any other Government the allies must hesitate to do business lest it be repudiated later by the people. But an election can hardly come before demobilization, before evacuation of the regions to be occupied by the allies. Least of all can it come before the German chaos has settled into some form of order.

Many Wait for Order.
We may conclude that any real peace conference in the present year is out of the question. We may suspect that any gathering early next year is unlikely, given the existing situation of chaos, not merely in Germany, but in Austria and in Turkey. Peace can only be made with Governments and for the moment there is no Government in Austria or Germany and no handy substitute such as Louis XVIII constituted in 1814.

Nor is this the sole difficulty. We are not merely to deal with Germany in making the new peace, but we have to reconstruct the maps of Europe, Asia and Africa and re-order the relations between the nations of the world. We have to create new countries and we have to re-write the international law governing countries in their dealings hereafter. In a word, we have to free the smaller peoples and to construct a league of nations.

Looking to the task of liberating the smaller peoples, it is apparent instantly that the problem is colossal. The conflict between various claims is bound to be sharp. We have already the protests of the Jugo-Slavs against Italian claims in the Adriatic, Greek protests against Italian claims in Albania, Ruthenian protests against Polish policy in Eastern Galicia. The German minority in Czechoslovakia is already becoming vocal and the social problems of Russia are manifold.

Many Preliminary Treaties.
It may be that the victorious allies will follow the course of their predecessors in 1814, and promptly sign a treaty with Germany, always providing that Germany can, in the meantime, achieve a national Government. But this would be but a minor detail in the general settlement, as the treaty of Paris was wholly subordinate to that of Vienna. And the problem of time would remain in the matter of the larger task.

Measuring my past precedent, it seems to me almost inevitable that the negotiations for restoring peace now will occupy more, if not all, of next year, and may easily extend into 1920. There may be separate treaties closing the war as between Germany and Russia, Germany and the allies and the allies and the allies, but these will not collectively or severally dispose of the even greater questions of race and international relations.

And even if Germany finds herself free of the Russian yoke, without whom no general settlement can be made and concerning whom all the we know precludes hope of speedy sanity.

In a word, the making of peace may spread its wings in the shadow of Westphalia and Utrecht, it can hardly occupy less time than the settlement of the Napoleonic period, which occupied more than 20 months, punctuated by the Hundred Days of Napoleon.

might have to bring food to Europe. Bonar Law said that everything available in connection with the manufacture of instrumentalities of war would be returned to the production of munitions ships, so that there would probably be increased expenditure under this head.

The estimated expenditure for 200 days to Oct. 19 was $1,411,000,000, but the actual disbursements amounted to $1,251,400,000. There was a reduction of $159,600,000. There was a reduction of $126,000, as compared with the estimate. The daily expenditure of the army increased to $3,700,000, while the disbursement of the navy decreased to $13,550,000, because of the fact that expectation as to the building of merchant ships had not been realized. There was a reduction of $30,000,000 on munitions, as compared with the estimate, owing to an over-ambitious program.

LONDON NEWSPAPER CALLS AMERICANS IN WAR AMAZING

LONDON, Nov. 6 (Wednesday).—In praising the work of the American expeditionary force, in an editorial today, the Morning Post says: "Of the gallant and decisive deeds now unfolding on the western front, not least conspicuous appears to be the achievements of the American army in the critical Meuse sector. At any other moment those achievements would have been certain of deserved celebration."

"The American troops, only newly trained, inheriting no long military tradition and molded by no iron-bound system, have faced and have overcome the pick of the German legions. The cost doubtless has been heavy, but the result is amazing."

"In this country we have never doubted as to how the American soldier would prove himself in the field, but it is not too much to say that the most confident expectations have been surpassed. The rapidity and thoroughness with which Gen. Pershing's men have adapted themselves to the highly specialized conditions of modern warfare have been a revelation. Indeed, in their own phrase, they have made good and lost no time about it."

"When the story is written of these last fateful days of the war it will be recognized that the part played by the men from the United States has been neither the least honorable nor the least onerous."

BONAR LAW ASKS COMMONS FOR CREDIT OF $3,500,000,000

Says There Will Be a Reduction in Expenditures Due to Changed Military Situation.

By the Associated Press.

LONDON, Tuesday, Nov. 12.—In moving a vote of credit for £700,000,000 ($3,500,000,000) in the House of Commons today, Andrew Bonar Law, Chancellor of the Exchequer, said there would be a reduction in expenditures due to the change in the military situation. Military authorities advised against reducing the amount, as the allies

SCRIMMAGE PUTS FOUR MORE PIKERS ON HOSPITAL LIST

Berger, Deeds, Kraehe and Siebert Forced to Quit Field After Being Hurt.

QUARTERBACK JOB OPEN

Both Regular "Field Generals" Now Disabled; Site for Missouri Game Up Today.

Every day is "hospital day" on the Pikeaway. Coach Dick Rutherford's football squad, in the preparatory work yesterday for the vital issue with Missouri, lost four more players to the hospital. Three fresh casualties, while a fourth player suffered a renewal of an old wound.

Capt. Berger after engaging in scrimmage work for a short period, was forced to leave the field, after he had again bruised his battered shoulder. Berger's injury, according to Rutherford, while not serious, handicaps his playing, and it may be necessary to give the captain complete rest for a week.

Who Will Play Quarter? Kraehe, Deeds and Siebert were the other members of the varsity who were relegated to the bandage and crutches corps. Kraehe and Siebert are limping about on cracked ankles, while Deeds, who played last Saturday with his wrist firmly bandaged, hurt the member a fresh yesterday.

The coach is visibly worried concerning whether he will be able to employ this quartet against Missouri. The loss of Siebert may hurt particularly, since Rutherford is unable to determine at this time whether Rutherford will be ready. Siebert has hobbled with the free use of but one of his underpinnings, the other being afflicted with "charlie horse." There's no telling who may show at quarter Saturday, if both Simpson and Siebert are forced to remain out of it.

Deeds' absence would put a very severe crimp in the strength of the Pikeaway line, every ounce of which Rutherford wants to pit against the Tigers. The coach, though, is a born optimist; he couldn't be anything else and emerge smiling through the trail of injuries the Pikeaway have left behind this far this season.

To Select Site Today. Whether the Missouri game will be played at Columbia or Francis Field will be determined today. Rutherford dispatched a wire to Missouri University this morning, telling them the influenza ban has been taken off here and inviting the Tigers to come here, providing they cannot play on their home lot. The coach would prefer to play in Columbia, he says, because of the rival attractions booked here Saturday.

There is also a very good chance that Rutherford will not lose any more football players through the medium of calls to officers' training camps. A report from Washington this morning carried the news that further calls for men to train for commissions have been suspended. This being the case, Rutherford probably will not lose the three men who have departed this week.

PRINCETON IS GRANTED PERMISSION TO PLAY IN BENEFIT GAME, NOV. 16

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 12.—Princeton University has announced that sanction has been granted to its team to play at the Polo Grounds next Saturday, Nov. 16, for the benefit of the United War Work campaign. The team which the Tigers will oppose has not yet been selected, but will be announced by W. W. Roper, secretary of the Sports Committee, and W. S. Langford, chairman of the Football Committee, today. The Princeton authorities have specifically granted permission to the team to play a service eleven from either Camp Dix or Camp Upton, but a little latitude has been asked, and it is barely possible the Nassau players will complete against some other team. Arrangements are being made for the presence of 1000 Princeton students from the army and navy units. They will be accompanied to New York by their military and naval chiefs and parade through the streets of the city on the morning of the game. A splendid military demonstration in connection with the event is being planned.

FRED MITCHELL DEVOTES WINTER TO RED CROSS

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—Fred Mitchell, manager of the champion Cubs, is devoting his energies to Red Cross work and expects to spend the winter in Chicago. It was the manager's intention, after failing to find a place in the Quartermaster's Corps, to return to his Massachusetts farm near Boston. But he decided it would be impossible to raise anything on that farm to help win the war during a New England winter, so elected to stay here and do something more useful than shoveling snow and coal. President Comiskey of the White Sox is spending a few days at Camp Vernon, Mercer, Wis., in an endeavor to stock his larder with a quantity of venison so as to save beef for the Comiskey used to hunt deer with a 303 Savage rifle loaded with 20-20 ammunition and wondered why he had no luck. Since the mistake was discovered a few years ago he has had to depend on game less often than formerly to bring back the goods.

Stecher to Meet Zybsko.

GREAT LAKES, Ill., Nov. 12.—See Stecher, former world's wrestling champion and at present Navy title holder, has been matched to meet Wladek Zybsko at Madison Square Garden, New York, Nov. 18. It was announced yesterday. The proceeds of the match are to be turned over to the United War Work campaign fund.

SPORT SALAD

No Place to Light.

LINE eyes have seen a vision of the Kaiser and his army. They were sprinting into Holland, but the Kaiser beat the gun. 'Twas by the narrow margin of a chin the Kaiser won. While Peace went marching on.

CHORUS.
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
While Peace went marching on.

The Kaiser was so tired he sat down to rest a bit. But from fair Wilhelmina he received the icy snarl: "In other words she hinted he had best get up and git. While Peace went marching on."

CHORUS.
Glory, glory, hallelujah! etc.

He jumped into a Zeppelin and started on a flight. He beat it out of Holland on a wild and stormy night. He hovered over Sweden, but they wouldn't let him light. While Peace went marching on.

CHORUS.
Glory, glory, hallelujah! etc.

His Zeppelin went sailing over hills and over plains. He thought he'd light in Denmark, where he'd tell it to the Danes; But they told him he landed they would batter out his brains. While Peace went marching on.

CHORUS.
Glory, glory, hallelujah! etc.

He headed then for Russia, where the late lamented Nick was given his quietus by the bloody Bolsheviks. He landed on the border but they wouldn't let him stick. While Peace went marching on.

CHORUS.
Glory, glory, hallelujah! etc.

He looked around in sorrow when they ordered him to scud. He tried to find some doorway with a welcome on the mat. But he couldn't find a doorway where they'd let him hang his hat. While Peace went marching on.

CHORUS.
Glory, glory, hallelujah! etc.

He thought, perhaps, in sheer hell he would find a resting place. In lieu of any haven here among the human race; But the devil saw him coming and the door slammed in his face. While Peace went marching on.

CHORUS.
Glory, glory, hallelujah! etc.

Going, Going, Gone!

The red flag is floating over the house of Holenzollern. Must be going to auction it off.

As we get it the All Highest was brought down out of control.

Having lost his fleet the Kaiser might get a job in Holland as captain of a canal boat.

We notice that the new head of the German Government, who in a manner of speaking is battling for the Crown Prince, has a double chin. Making the Fatherland two up on the proposition.

On the Sidelines

Stanford University, which up to the present season has not maintained a college football eleven since 1910, when the game was abandoned for Rurby, will oppose the University of California Thanksgiving day. This was formerly the "big event" of the collegiate gridiron season in the old days. California resumed the varsity game two years ago. One of its coaches was Eddie Mahan, the famous Harvard backfield star.

Rockwell Field (San Diego, Cal.) aviators recently played an unusual football contest against the Redlands University team. Owing to the influenza scare, the aviator football players went to the field in planes, each man having a separate pilot and machine. The only spectators at the game were the pilots and a few student army training corps members, all of whom viewed the game in "flit" masks.

Washington State College is in the field with four elevens, made up from a squad of over 100 soldier-students. The four teams will play a game each week and at the conclusion the men of greatest promise will be drawn upon for a varsity team. The varsity will meet Idaho, Oregon Aggies and other elevens. Washington State, for several years, has had fine teams in the field. It will be remembered in St. Louis as the school that defeated Coach Cochem's great St. Louis University machine of 1907, score 12 to 6. John Bender, afterwards coach at St. Louis, St. Kansas Aggies and University of Tennessee, was the director of athletics at Washington State when Cochems called.

Kinsella's Son Dies Abroad.

PEORIA, Ill., Nov. 12.—Wm. R. Kinsella, former owner of the Three Eyes Club in Springfield, and former St. Louis Cardinal and New York Giant scout, was at dinner here tonight, following the meeting of the National Baseball Association, he was handed a telegram announcing that his son, Raymond, had died and been buried in France yesterday. Kinsella, who had three sons in military service, immediately returned to his home in Springfield.

TY COBB BATTED .382 OFFICIAL MARKS SHOW

George Sisler of Browns Was Third Among American League Regulars With .341.

Official batting averages of the abbreviated American League season, released today, show Ty Cobb, the Detroit star, as the leader, with an average of .382. George Sisler of the Browns was sixth in the list and third among the regulars, with .341. George Burns, Athletics, .352, was second among the regulars.

In team hitting the Browns took second place, with .259; Cleveland, .261, being the leader. The world's champion Red Sox were seventh, with a mark of .249. The world's champions had only one select circle hitter, Babe Ruth, who finished with an even .200.

The average of the leading 25 hitters, the St. Louis players and teams follow:

CONZELMAN ENTERED IN A. A. U. BOXING BOUTS

GREAT LAKES, Ill., Nov. 12.—Jimmy Conzelman, the St. Louis boy, twice middleweight champion here, is coming out of retirement to go after the Central A. A. U. title. He will take the team of 31 go-bos to Milwaukee for the elimination tournament which opens there tonight. He probably will draw a soldier from Camp Grant as his opponent. Despite the fact that he has not touched a glove in several months he is in good condition.

CANNEFAX WILL OPPOSE KIECKHEFER NEXT WEEK

Bob Cannefax, the former St. Louis star in the Interstate three-cushion billiard league and an ex-champion, will meet August Kieckhefer, the present champion, next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday in Chicago in a championship match, according to reports from Chicago last night. Kieckhefer only last week successfully defended his crown against Charles McCourt.

GREAT LAKES ELEVEN DEPARTS FOR BROOKLYN

GREAT LAKES, Ill., Nov. 12.—Head Coach Lieut. McCreary and 20 Great Lakes football stars departed this morning for Brooklyn where Saturday the go-bos are scheduled to meet the strong Rutgers eleven in a benefit contest. The team will remain in the East all next week to prepare for the navy battle on Nov. 22.

Saturday's Football Games Arranged by Local Teams Thus Far

With local football eleven permitted to exhibit in public for the first time, in four weeks, at least two programs of interest have been arranged. There is a very good chance also that Washington University and Missouri University will meet at Francis Field, and that those high schools, both city and country, not already having dates, will make last-minute arrangements for games. The present schedule for Saturday is:

At Sportsman's Park.

St. Louis University vs. Great Lakes Aviators.

At High School Field.

Cleveland vs. Yeatman at 1:30 p. m.

Central vs. Soldan at 3 p. m.

(These games will mark the beginning of the interscholastic League championship race.)

Ruth's Peculiar Record.

Babe Ruth, the Red Sox pitcher-in-field-outfielder, had a peculiar record. In 95 games he drew 57 bases on balls and fanned 58 times. He had 26 doubles, 11 triples and was high with 11 home runs. He scored 59 runs and made 25 safeties.

GREAT LAKES AVIATORS PLAY BILLIKENS HERE

Quigley's Charges Make First Local Appearance of Season Saturday; Game for Charity.

Coach Ernest Quigley's Billikens will make their first home appearance of the season Saturday at Sportsman's Park, against the Great Lakes Aviators. The latter is one of the many regimental football elevens at the Chicago naval camp and is not the team originally booked to meet the Billikens last Saturday.

The Great Lakes Aviators were substituted for Fort Benjamin Harrison. The Harrison aggregation was unable to make the trip unless they were given a portion of the gate receipts as their athletic fund is said to be insufficient to defray expenses. Father Hermans, Athletic Director at St. Louis University, desired to turn over the entire gate receipts of Saturday's game to the United War Work Fund. The Great Lakes Aviators were willing that this be done.

HIGH SCHOOL OFFICIALS TO HOLD CONFERENCE TO SETTLE FOOTBALL DATES

While it is practically a certainty now that the high schools will begin their championship race Saturday, B. B. Gould announced early today that a meeting of coaches and officials will be held tomorrow at which time formal action will be taken. Gould said so far as he knows, the regularly scheduled games will prevail.

At the conference tomorrow, it will be decided just how the regular number of contests will be played during the season. Gould said he presumed the schedule would merely be adhered to, which will bring the Scholastic League race to a conclusion either Dec. 7 or 14.

hence Father Hermans granted the plea for a game.

Three St. Louis boys of gridiron fame will appear with the "go-bos" here Saturday. They are Talty O'Connor, Boies Potthoff and Johnny Magner. All are products of local elevens, getting their first football experience with high school teams.

With the quarantine removed, Coach Quigley sent his bulky squad yesterday. The coach is expecting a great revival of interest among the boys with prospects of being able to complete the present schedule.

MINOR LEAGUES WILL APPEAL TO PRESIDENT

Committee Is Instructed to Get Wilson's Views on Baseball for Next Season.

PEORIA, Ill., Nov. 12.—The Committee on Resolutions appointed by President Sexton at the opening session of the annual meeting of the National Association of Professional Leagues here yesterday has been instructed to send a resolution to President Wilson on the successful conclusion of the world war, and to get his views on baseball prospects for 1919. This will be done immediately in order to get an answer before the convention adjourns.

It also was unofficially stated that an appeal for the release of players now in France would be made to the War Department by the magnates.

Lefty Leifield, Brown pitcher, and Ed Herr, scout, are contemplating the purchase of Don White's half interest in the Dallas club of the Texas

RAGTIME TOURNAMENT AT CONGRESS ALLE

With the reopening of the bowling alleys following a 14-day quarantine, Jack Berensford of Congress, announced today that would stage a two-game ragtime tournament at his drives Saturday and Sunday. Bowlers are permitted to enter as often as they want to. The Liberty Bond tournament also is completed. It was scheduled to close Nov. 17, but Berensford continues it for the time that his drives were closed.

The other alley owners are also planning different features for the week-end.

League. Both are attending the meeting. Other St. Louisans present are Bob Quinn, business manager of Browns; Charles Barrett, scout of the Cardinals; and Earl Marshall. Four committees were appointed yesterday by President Sexton. They are on revision of the constitution, J. Hickey of Chicago, J. H. Farrell of Auburn and Walter Morris of "Fort Worth; credentials, John C. Ryan of Peoria, Nick Cornish of Savannah and Dan O'Neill of Hartford, Conn.; resolutions, George E. Veldner of Minneapolis; and E. J. Hanlon of Sioux City. Committee on Audit, R. H. Baugh of Birmingham and G. H. Muehlenbach of Kansas City.

STOCK QUOTATIONS ARE LOWER IN NEW YORK

S. Steel Common Sells Below 99 on Active Trading; Bonds Are Steady.

Stocks Lower in London on Resisting Sales.
LONDON, Nov. 13.—The reaction continued on the Stock Exchange today. It was due to selling, competition of war bonds and a desire to have funds for reconstruction. Oil, rubber and Mexican shares were the most active. Money was in fair demand and discount rates were quiet.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.
The decline in the stock market yesterday was carried further at the opening today, and losses were the rule on many of the favorite shares. Sentiment generally is badly shaken over the speculative and business outlook. Early trading again gave promise of an active session.

How the steel companies will fare after the war is a debatable subject which is engrossing the attention of the financial community at the moment. To judge by the stock market's reception of news indicating an early peace, the steel business is expected to be hurt, while others benefit, from the termination of hostilities. In this connection the views of the executive head of one of the four largest steel concerns in the country are pertinent.

"Generally speaking, the work of reconstruction and readjustment will be influenced largely by governmental policies with respect to the shipping, building and railroad construction programs. If transportation facilities are to be maintained on a maximum basis an enormous tonnage of steel will be required and in addition to this a further tonnage will be wanted for the manufacture of agricultural implements to take care of the large crops suggested by the enormous acreage of wheat now seeded."

"It may be assumed, I think, on account of the prospect of increased output of transportation facilities through the manufacture of motor trucks, steel cars and locomotives, that a substantial demand for steel is assured, even though a modified shipping program is established."

DETAILED REPORT OF DAY'S TRADING IN WALL STREET
NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Wall, shipping and copper were the chief factors in the opening of today's stock market, losses extending from large gains in the previous day. The market was generally active, with a reaction in the afternoon. The steel industry was the most active, with a reaction in the afternoon. Just Like the Men Talk.

"WHADID I TELL YU?"

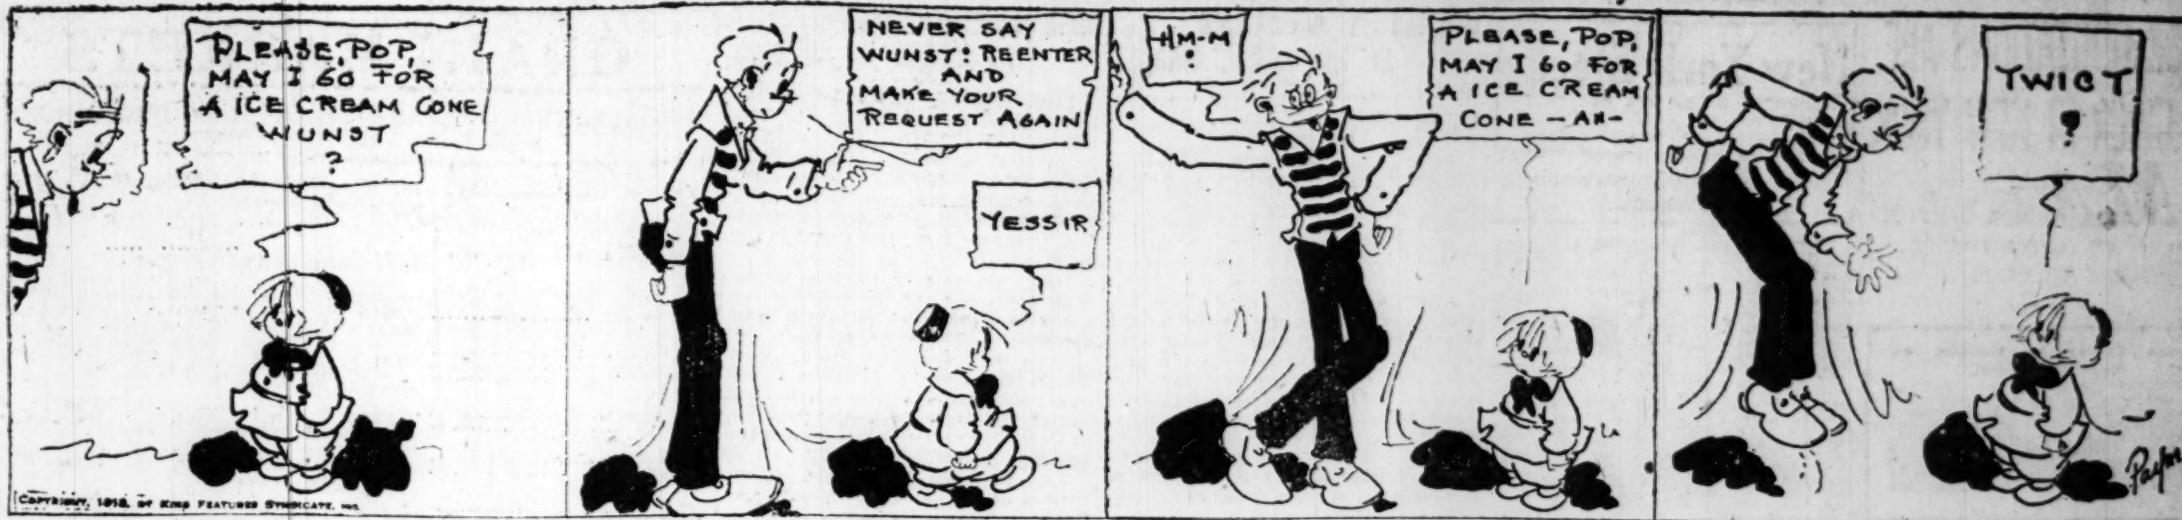

Let the Wedding Bells Ring Out.

Many things are saleable, not because they are needed, but because people have been made to believe that they ought to have them.—Albany Journal.

In the list of new definitions you might write it thus: Silence—Something a married man remembers out of his bachelorhood.—Memphis Commercial Appeal.

"SAY, POP!"—ALKALI IKE HAS NO LIMIT FOR ICE CREAM CONES.—By PAYNE.

GETTING SOMETHING TO EAT THESE DAYS.—By GOLDBERG.

MUTT AND JEFF—THIS WAS BEFORE THE ARMISTICE WAS SIGNED.—By BUD FISHER.

It was the annual fair and sports, and among the attractions horses were for sale. They were not a handsome-looking lot, but they excited a little curiosity. An old farmer, on the lookout for a bargain, approached a dealer and inquired the price of a steed that had probably won a prehistoric derby. "Seventeen and sixpence," was the reply. The farmer closed with the offer and tendered a pound note in payment, but the horse dealer had no change. "Never mind, guv'nor," he said. "Tek another horse, but pick one of the end 'uns. If you touch the middle 'uns you'll have the blessed lot down."—London Tit-Bits.

For GRAY HAIR

No matter how gray, streaked or faded your hair may be, one to three applications will make it light brown, dark brown or black, whichever shade you desire. It does not rub off, is not sticky or greasy and leaves the hair fluffy.

Sweet and Low.

THE family were entertaining callers one afternoon, and while the grown-ups were talking, the baby crept on the floor. Suddenly there was a loud bump and wild wail. It came from the direction of the piano. "Oh, the baby has hurt himself!" cried the mother. "Run quick, dear!" The young father had already dashed toward the piano. He dropped on his knees and groped under the piano for his injured offspring. Presently he returned. "He fell down and pumped his head on one of the pedals." "Oh, the poor darling! Is it a bad bump?" asked one of the guests. "No," he answered. "Fortunately his head hit the soft pedal!"—London Tit-Bits.
